FEDERAL.

NEUTRALITY OF SWITZERLAND.

The Secretary General of the League of Nations received from the Swiss Government the memorandum referred to in M. Motta's letter of April 20th in which he asked that the neutrality of Switzerland within the framework of the League should be placed on the provisional agenda of the session of the League Council which will begin on Monday, May 9th.

The memorandum says that the Swiss Federal Council—that is, the Government,—supported by the overwhelming majority of the two Houses of the Federal Parliament and of the people of Switzerland, asks the Council of the League with every confidence for a declaration that the traditional neutrality of the Swiss Confederation is consistent with the provisions of the Covenant.

The most important reasons given in the memorandum for this request are as follows:—

Circumstances have greatly changed since Switzerland joined the League. Some of the most important clauses of the Covenant have not been enforced. The system of sanctions has not operated in every case. Competition in armaments has been resumed on a larger scale than ever. Instead of becoming universal the League has lost the participation of some important countries. The United States did not see their way to join, and four great countries, two of them Switzerland's neighbours, have withdrawn.

Such a state of affairs could not but affect the position of a perpetually neutral country. Owing to her unique situation Switzerland cannot accept a system of optional sanctions. Her neutrality cannot be allowed to depend upon circumstances, it has been established once for all.

Its strength is in its clear definition and its permanent character. At the present day the distinction between military and economic sanctions would prove illusory so far as Switzerland was concerned. If she resorted to economic pressure she would be in grave danger of being treated exactly as if she had taken military action.

AIR MAILS TO BELGIUM AND SWITZERLAND.

The Postmaster-General announces that on and from Monday first class mail (letters, letter-packets, and postcards) for Belgium and Switzerland, prepaid at the ordinary international postage rates (2½d. for the first ounce and 1½d. for each subsequent ounce for letters, and 1½d. each for postcards) will be dispatched by air from London on weekday evenings as follows:—

BELGIUM.—Two dispatches each evening from Monday to Friday. SWITZERLAND.—One dispatch each evening from Monday to Saturday.

This is a further extension of the principle of using the air as a normal means of transmission of first class mail for Europe at the ordinary international postage rates. The correspondence must be posted in the ordinary posting boxes, and blue air mail labels or other marking indicating air transmission must not be used.

Switzerland2 Portugal1

By this handsome though lucky victory Switzerland has won a place among the last 16 nations competing in the World championship staged in France. In the first round we are drawn against Germany (Austria, by the way, has evaporated into thin air, after playing a last and final fixture against Germany in Vienna a month ago and winning it by 2 goal to none; as they were drawn against Sweden, that country is given a bye into round 2), the match to take place on June 5th at the Parc des Princes in Paris. Naturally Switzerland was keen to get that chance; but so was Portugal who had just held Germany to a draw in Cologne.

Our defence stood as against the Czechs in Basel, i.e., Huber in goal, Minelli and Stelzer (Lausanne) backs, Springer, Vernati and Loertscher (Servette) halves. For one reason or another only two of the forward line that shot four goals against Czechoslovakia remained: Aebi (Servette) at outside left and Amado (Lugano) this time at inside right. He played last at outside right and previous to that at centre forward, born footballer and a success wherever he is needed. Bickel (Grasshoppers) reappeared on the right wing, Kielholz (Young Fellows) resumed at centre-forward after some considerable time and Trello (Servette) partnered his club-mate Aebi. Not a bad line on paper, but somehow they did not find a very happy understanding. On the other hand our defenders were once again in great form. They needed all that and heaps of luck on top to hold their first half lead. Barely 12,000 spectators were in attendance. The Portuguese proved to be an extremely speedy and clever team and it was against the run of the play when Aebi scored in the 23rd minute from a pass by Trello. Five minutes later, Minelli placed a high ball into Portugal's goalmouth where Amado, with his back to the goal, performed an acrobatic masterpiece and the ball flew past the flabbergasted goalie into the net. Switzerland led by 2:0!

From now onwards Portugal pressed vigorously. But always some head or leg, or the post or crossbar helped our harassed keeper and prevented a score. Same picture, same story in the second half. Even a penalty-kick landed against a post! At last after 27 minutes the Portuguese centre-forward did score, at the second attempt. It was too late; the end came without any further score and Switzerland had won what must have been just about the luckiest victory there ever was. A long overdue change of fortune for our Reds.

By the way, the Swiss Cup Finale played in Bern on Easter-Monday between Servette and Grasshoppers, in the presence of the President of the Confederation (Dr. Baumann, Appenzell, in case you should not know) ended all square at two goals each after extra time. The reply will take place on the same ground on Ascension Day, May 26th.
