to all Swiss, their families and friends to take part in the National Day Celebration on Tuesday, 1st August, 1939, at St. Pancras Town Hall (new building opposite St. Pancras Railway Station) Euston Road, W.C.1.

Under the Honorary Presidency of the Swiss Minister, Monsieur C. R. Paravicini, who will address the gathering. There will also be short messages of welcome in the four national languages, singing of Swiss songs, patriotic music rendered by the Swiss Orchestral Society, the Swiss Accordion Club and the Swiss Choral Society.

Come along in your national costume, because we want to celebrate our National Day in a truly Swiss manner. Tea and light refreshments will be served from 6.30 p.m. onwards and the bar will be open the whole evening. There will be lots of Swiss specialities to eat and drink and take away with you and you will be able to dance until midnight.

Free admission by ticket obtainable from the Swiss Legation, any of the Swiss Societies named on the back, the "Swiss Observer" or from members of the Committee.

Don't be late and tell all your friends to be there at 6.30 p.m.
