SWISS RELIEF CENTRE.

As our readers are aware, Swiss House was open for inspection last Thursday and Saturday. All those of our compatriots who visited the centre were greatly impressed by the efficient and comfortable organisation which had been created, and expressed their grateful thanks to the members of the House committee and the ladies who had contributed so much in putting a homely touch to the Centre.

Some 15 Swiss are now being looked after in the home, and you can quite imagine what a blessing they consider it that our Minister, Monsieur Walter Thurnheer, should have had the foresight of suggesting the creation of such a home in these tragic days.

Every appeal which has so far been made by the committee has been generously answered, but the actual relief work has really only just started, so that more funds will be required, and it is earnestly hoped that all those who have not yet had an opportunity of contributing will not fail to do so. As stated previously, donations can be sent to the Swiss Benevolent Society, or to any other Swiss Society, or to the Swiss Observer or to any member of the committee of the Swiss Relief Centre, and they should be earmarked "Swiss Relief Centre."

The committee once more thank everyone who was kind enough to send bedding, furnishings, china and cutlery. There is no further need for this, thanks to the great generosity of those who have contributed, but there is a great need for clothing for both men and women. We should, therefore, be grateful if any of our friends who have any articles of clothing to spare, including boots and shoes, would kindly have them sent to Swiss House, 34, Fitzroy Square. Some of the Swiss victims who have arrived at the Centre having lost all their belongings, it is essential that the Centre should be able to help them with clothing. In case of difficulty about sending just drop a note to the Swiss Relief Centre indicating what you have to spare, and every endeavour will be made to collect it.

We have so far been fortunate in escaping air attacks in the London district, but nobody knows when these may start. A number of our compatriots living in the provinces have already been severely hit.

Now is the time for those who are still in comfortable circumstances to make an effort, and try and help the more unfortunate of our compatriots.

The Swiss Relief Centre is open to all Swiss who may become victims of air raids or through any other cause due to the war.

Please look round now and arrange to send whatever articles of clothing you may have to spare, and ask your friends to do likewise. Your parcels will be thankfully received.

The committee will also be grateful to have the names and addresses of compatriots who may be able to accommodate victims in case it should be found necessary to evacuate them from Swiss House. Please send all details of accommodation available, stating whether you are best equipped for taking men or women or children or a whole family.

DO IT NOW — THANK YOU.

Bee.
