THE SWISS NATIONAL HYMN. (Schweizer Psalm.)

(English translation by Willi Deutsch.)

With the sun's first golden beam
Setting snow-capped peaks a-gleam,
Yet another glorious morn' thus is born.

As we stand in adoration;
Proud of our land and nation,
We pray God for maintenance
Of this great inheritance.

When the ev'ning's shadows fall,
Starry heavens us enthrall,
We are lifted high above, by God's love.

Whilst in silent contemplation,
Fill'd with awe and admiration,
Our grateful hearts expand,
Beating high for Switzerland.

And when storm-clouds stir the sky,
Lightning flashes from on high,
We implore, with one accord, Thee, O Lord!

In our greatest tribulation
He is our sure salvation;
May His strong, protective hand
Ever guard our native land.

PERSONAL.

We are pleased to record here the marriage of Miss Joyce Parker to Mr. Milton M. Pfaendler, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Pfaendler (St. Gall) of 61, Woodland Rise, Muswell Hill, N.10, who are of course well-known in our Colony. The ceremony took place on July 11th at St. Matthew's, Muswell Hill.

On the same date a similar event was witnessed at the Methodist Church, Muswell Hill, when Miss Jean M. Bloomfield was married to Mr. Gerald J. Huber, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Huber (Thurgau) of 48, Grove Avenue, Muswell Hill. Mr. Huber senior is an old member of the Swiss Mercantile Society where his prowess at "Jass" has become an institution.

LETTER BOX.

J. B. — Capetown. Many thanks for your letter. Under our licence we cannot mail propaganda copies; your friend will have to pay "before" receipt of goods. — Yes, the gentleman you inquire about is still very much alive; he has gone one better and now presides over the Luculus Club at 44, Old Compton Street, W.1, where he still dispenses culinary and other mellifluous prescriptions.

E. H. — Richmond. Your assumption is quite correct and your subscription will now take you to No. 1038; the green demand note should have been omitted.

M. E. B. — Stockport. We are sure our readers will like your "Picture Book;" hope you approve the few modifications suggested by our poet-laureate.
