SWISS CATHOLICS IN LONDON.

The Christmas and New Year's Service on January 2nd at St. Peters Church, Westminster, was well attended. Father Lanfranchi preached and assisted by Father Würms gave solemn benediction, the mixed choir rendering carols before and after the service.

The Childrens and Christmas party at the Cathedral Hall which followed was a huge success, nearly 600 compatriots being present. Thanks to the generous donors all children up to 16, about 80 in all, received toys or useful presents, whilst the grown ups had tea provided, supplemented by cakes and pastries graciously supplied by Messrs. Bachmann (Kencakes), Webber and Aubonney.

On the nomination of the Most Rev. Bernard Griffin as Archbishop of Westminster, the Committee sent on behalf of the Swiss Catholics congratulations and assurance of our prayers for his success, and His Grace replied giving thanks and his blessings to all.
