PERSONAL

We are pleased to announce the birth, on March 10th, at Twyford Nursing Home, Bognor Regis, to Mabs (née Ketley) wife of John C. Nussle, of Swiss House, Elmer Beach, Bognor Regis, of a daughter Cheryl Maureen, sister to Jacqueline and Anthony.

S.O.S.

We understand that the Education Committee of the Swiss Mercantile Society is experiencing great difficulties in finding accommodation for our compatriots who intend to attend the College, which is going to open again shortly after Easter.

Owing to insufficient accommodation at "Swiss House" only a limited number of applicants have been accepted, most of them are between the age of 25-32.

We invite readers of the SWISS OBSERVER who could offer suitable accommodation to get in touch with the Secretary of the Swiss Mercantile Society at "Swiss House," 35, Fitzroy Square, W.1.

EDITOR'S POST BAG.

The Editor wishes to thank the following subscribers for their complimentary communications received:

Miss R.I., Haslemere: ". . . . I always enjoy reading your excellent paper and I am looking forward to it each month, especially was I glad to receive the SWISS OBSERVER during the last few years, when news from home was scarce. I consider it a great privilege to be able to contribute in a humble measure to the maintenance of a paper, which deserves the loyal support of every Swiss citizen in Great Britain."

S.E.B., Milford Haven: "I enclose P.O. for 6/6 as required. I had first written 12/- for 24 issues, but feared it was too great a challenge to Destiny as I shall be 89 in a few months. I thoroughly enjoy reading my SWISS OBSERVER from end to end, and feel grateful to you for the treat." (Many very happy returns for your approaching birthday.—Editor.)

E.H., Balloch: ". . . . It is very gratifying that the SWISS OBSERVER was issued throughout the war in such a satisfactory manner. It still gives us the best news about Swiss affairs from home and in this country, and I only hope that eventually every Swiss will become a subscriber to the paper."

L.V.S., Shrewsbury: ". . . . With renewed thanks for all the interest and pleasure your paper has given me while absent from Switzerland."
