at the Swiss Legation. It was a very happy gathering which showed in no uncertain way that winners and losers can be very good friends.

The Swiss team left London on Friday, December 3rd, for another international meeting with the Irish team in Dublin. There were some changes in the Swiss representative side which proved very successful; they won indeed the fight in Dublin with the score 1:0, this being the first Swiss victory gained in Eire.

SWISS CHILDRENS' ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY.

In our issue of October 29th., reference was made to the Party of all children of the Colony, at Victoria Halls; Bloomsbury Square, W.C.1, on the First Saturday in the new year. —

Preparations are well in hand, thus we would like to advise the parents to apply at once for admission cards to Miss Ida Matthey, 102, Hornsey Lane, N.6.

Donations would be thankfully received by Mr. C. Campart, 33, Heathfield Park, Willesden Lane, N.W.2.

We are informed that the "Little Black Book" has still "a few lines to spare," and may we remember the poet, who said:

"He who gives a child a treat,
Lights a lamp in Heaven's Street."

With Maggi's Aspic Jelly valuable additions may be made to war-time menus. From meat, fish and vegetable "left-overs" attractive supplementary dishes can be contrived.

INVALID ASPIC

Maggi's Aspic Jelly in a small mould daintily served with two or three small strips of toast will be a welcome change from "beef tea."

FISH ASPIC

Cod or Salmon remaining from the boiled fish can be used, also prawns or shrimps. Fill the mould $\frac{2}{3}$ full and when nearly set put in the flakes of fish and fill up.

MEAT ASPIC

Cooked fresh sausage meat or meat left over from the joints may be used minced. Drop the meat into the jelly before setting and serve with a little watercress or cress.

ASPIC SANDWICHES

Spread the slices of bread with margarine and then with a thin layer of jelly. Add grated cheese, watercress mustard and cress, meat or fish paste

JELLIED BEEF SOUP

A rich jellied beef soup may be made instantly with the addition of boiling water.

EDITOR'S POST-BAG.

The Editor,

Swiss Railways.

Dear Mr. Editor,

Last month, in my short article on The Swiss Federal Railways, I ventured to observe that the innate orderliness and cleanliness of the Swiss people were reflected in their railways and that many travellers could testify to the truth of this statement.

Since then two books have been published in which the Swiss Railways are mentioned. Mr. Tyndale, in his "Mountain Paths" pays them a tribute and writes "In Switzerland only fools travel other than third-class."

In Mr. Hamilton Fyfe's "The most civilised People in Europe" the following passage occurs: "The Swiss State railways are the cleanest of any in Europe at the present time; they run more smoothly and they have better restaurant cars as well as more courteous officials than any."

These unsolicited testimonials should rejoice the hearts of those in charge of the publicity Department of the S.F.R.

Yours,

J.J.F.S.
