SWISS BANK CORPORATION.

Many of our readers who are concerned with the export trade will, we believe, be interested in hearing that the Swiss Bank Corporation in London have just published a booklet under the title "British Exports and Exchange Restrictions Abroad" in which details are set out of the conditions ruling in various parts of the world in so far as they affect the shipper of goods from the United Kingdom. The booklet contains a mass of useful information and we believe that the Swiss Bank Corporation are still in a position to give copies to business men who are specially interested.

We have great pleasure in offering our congratulations to Messrs. Ernest James Howell, Hermann Knoll, and George T. Neville Ross, on their promotion to be Sub-Managers of the Swiss Bank Corporation in London, and also Messrs. James Th. Allin, André E. Barbey, Reginald J. Davis, George S. Shaw, Frederick Suter, and Albert E. Wilkins, who have been appointed signature holders of the London Office of the Corporation.

PERSONAL.

We have much pleasure to announce, that Mr. A. Tall, of the Swiss Legation in London, has been transferred to the Swiss General Consulate in Munich, in the capacity of Chancellor.

We take this opportunity to express to him our best congratulations on this well-merited promotion.

Mr. Tall has been for many years on the staff of the Swiss Federal Railways and joined the Swiss Legation in the early years of the last war.

During his long séjour in this country, he has taken a great interest in the Colony and many of our readers will remember with pleasure his lectures and film shows.

Mr. Tall was, until recently, Hon. Secretary of the Nouvelle Société Helvétique, where he rendered excellent services, he was also a member of the Swiss Mercantile Society and the Swiss Male Choir.

In all his good work so readily given to the Swiss Colony he was ably assisted by his charming wife, and in thanking them for all their devotion, we wish them the best of success in their new sphere of activity.

* * *

We express our deep sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huni, of 51, Broadhurst, Ashted, Surrey, Mr. Huni's mother having died in Switzerland at the age of 68.
