MONTHLY MEETING OF THE CITY SWISS CLUB.

Alternating with the business meeting and "Jass-Abend" at Brown's Hotel — when, incidentally, our time-honoured national card game generally comes second to bridge! — the last monthly meeting of the City Swiss Club, held at the Dorchester Hotel on Tuesday, the 8th February, was in the excellent tradition which the colony's "Bürgermeister" established there years ago with topical talks and lectures given by eminent men of Swiss and other nationalities.

Mr. R. de Cintra, the Club President, was in the Chair and with him was the Club's Honorary President, the Swiss Minister, Monsieur Henry de Torrenté.

Guest of honour at this well-attended gathering was Mr. Edward Ellul, Commissioner General for Malta. In a pleasantly informal "causerie," he took his audience to the early history of that small island, whose trials and endurance throughout the last war will long be remembered. Interesting outstanding events of succeeding centuries were touched upon by Mr. Ellul, who stressed little known characteristics of the Maltese people, among which their religious fervour and faith, and the part, so often overlooked, which they played in the heroic defence of their island. His captivating form of address held his listeners' attention to his closing appeal to the Swiss in England and at home to have a change next time they go on holiday and to visit Malta.

The many and varied illustrated pamphlets which Mr. Ellul had brought along for distribution found eager hands and keen eyes.

As usual, an excellent dinner was served by the Dorchester.
