NEWS FROM THE SWISS LEGATION.

The Swiss Federal Council have decided to remit free of charge a copy of the Swiss Constitution to every Swiss citizen of age, residing abroad, who applies for it in writing.

Applicants should write to the Swiss Legation, 18, Montagu Place, London, W.1, before the 26th of March, mentioning full names, date and place of birth, place of origine, exact address, and the language in which they desire to receive the booklet in question.

PERSONAL.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the Swiss Minister and Madame Henry de Torrenté, on the passing away of their little son Henry, aged nineteen months, after an attack of meningitis.

We regret to announce the death of Monsieur Eric Barbey, which occurred at Cairo (Egypt).

Monsieur Barbey was, during the last war, special Courier of the Swiss Legation, between Lisbon and London, and afterwards was a member of the Commercial Division of the Swiss Legation.

Some time ago, the deceased was appointed Commercial Attaché in Cairo, where after a short illness he has died at the age of 42.
