null'altra soluzione s'impone all'infuori della chiusura del Teatro Sociale di Bellinzona. Mentre ad un tempo il teatro corrispondeva quasi ad un bisogno reale del popolo, oggi più. I gusti, le abitudini, tutto è mutato. Il pubblico cerca disperatamente di divertirsi, di ridere, di passare serate allegre, emozionanti ed affolla, fa coda ai cinematografi.

L'ING. CARLO MARIOTTI è deceduto a Locarno nel suo 80. mo anno. Il compianto, patrizio locarnese, era uomo che ha reso dei grandi servizi al Paese ed ha tenuto alto l'onore del Ticino. Laureatosi in ingegneria-meccanica al Politecnico federale, entrò giovanissimo alla fabbrica d'armi a Berna dove, grazie alle sue qualità organizzative ed alle sue competenze e conoscenze pratiche, percorse una bella carriera, meritandosi sempre la stima dei superiori e dei dipendenti. Nella fabbrica occupò il posto di v. direttore. E' autore della pubblicazione "Il fucile del soldato svizzero" ed è suo merito l'aver adottato il nostro esercito l'attuale mitragliatrice leggera.

DECESSO — Al Civico Ospedale di Lugano ha cessato di vivere a 81 anni, ILDO GAMBAZZI ex-sindaco di Novaggio. Persona intelligente, accoppiava alla serietà del carattere, preziose doti di funzionario ed amministratore.

CAPRETTI — In questa stagione primaverile ci piace segnalare la capra del Sig. Bartolino Bergonzoli di Piodina, fraz. di Brissago che in 4 anni ha regalato al suo proprietario ben 12 capretti, cioè 3 ogni anno.

BRITISH PARTY TO SWITZERLAND.

A Birthday Present to Princess Elisabeth.

On the occasion of the birth of Prince Charles, the town of Lucerne, with the collaboration of the "Société des Hôteliers" offered, as a birthday present to H.R.H. Princess Elisabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, an invitation to 50 needy British children (orphans and bomb victims) for a month's stay in Lucerne. Princess Elisabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh accepted this offer.

The party consisting of twenty children from London and ten children respectively from the cities of Plymouth, Birmingham and Manchester left London, under the auspices of the International Help for Children, — the President of which is the Lord Mayor of London, — on Wednesday, April 20th, from Victoria Station.

Shortly before the departure of the train, Princess Elisabeth, to the delight of the children, arrived at the station to say good-bye to them and to wish them a pleasant holiday.

Amongst the distinguished visitors at Victoria Station to see the children's departure, were: The Swiss Minister and Madame H. de Torrenté, accompanied by M. and Mme. Ch. Weibel, Secretary of Legation, and Dr. A. R. Lindt, Press Attaché, Sir Percy Greenaway, representing the Lord Mayor of London, the Rt. Hon. Mr. J. Bowen, Chairman of the London County Council and Mr. Arno Krebs, President of the Lucerne Hotel Proprietors Association, to the latter Princess Elisabeth expressed her thanks for the invitation extended to the children.

The Swiss Press was represented by Dr. H. W. Egli (N.Z.Z.), Mr. J. Menessier (Journal de Genève), and A. Stauffer (Swiss Observer).

As the train drew out, the children gave the Princess a big cheer, and some of them leaned from the carriage windows to wave good-bye to her.
