COMMUNIQUE.
Swiss Interests in Yugoslavia.

In view of the negotiations between Switzerland and Yugoslavia, it is essential that all information concerning Swiss assets in Yugoslavia be completed and carefully sifted.

Swiss nationals in Great Britain who have already informed the Swiss Compensation Office in Zurich, or the Federal Political Department in Berne, of their claims need not do anything further in the matter. A last chance is, however, given herewith to those compatriots who have not yet registered their claims. They should submit the necessary particulars to the Swiss Legation in London, 18, Montagu Place, W.1, if possible before the end of this month, but certainly not later than the 15th July, 1949. These particulars should contain all information concerning: (a) real estate in whatever form; (b) participation in mines, electrical undertakings, industrial and commercial firms, banks, insurance companies (partnerships, bonds, shares, etc.); (c) claims in whatever form, including bonds, debentures, certificates, against a debtor residing in territories under Yugoslav administration.

Special attention is drawn to the fact that after the 15th July, 1949, no further claims can be considered.

This communiqué concerns also nationals of the Principality of Liechtenstein who may be resident in Great Britain.

Swiss Legation, London, W.1.
