Guibat, is heartily to be congratulated on a really fine and enjoyable programme.

As a grand Finale of this year's 74th "Fête Suisse" the Cantique Suisse was sung by the entire audience.

In concluding this report, sincere thanks should be extended to the members of the Organising Committee, they have tackled a difficult job with great efficiency, and I wish specially to mention the names of Mr. Ch. Chapuis, President of the "Fête Suisse" Committee, Mr. A. Renou, Mr. E. P. Dick and Mr. J. Zimmermann, who have borne the chief burden of the work and, of course, to "La Chanson de Lausanne" who have endeared themselves to us by their fine performance; and many thanks too to all the charming programme and flag sellers. ST.
