As an extra we saw a film on the treatment and cure of tuberculosis at Leysin, which was very interesting and full of beautiful vistas of the country of that neighbourhood.

"BERNER YODLERKLUB" IN LONDON.

A limited number of members of the Swiss Colony in London, had the good fortune to spend a few enjoyable hours in the company of the "Berner Jodlerklub", on Friday, June 30th, at the "Schweizerbund", 74, Charlotte Stree, W.1.

These well-known "Yodlers" from Berne, had arranged an informal little dinner, previous to their departure to Llangollen where they were attending the Welsh Eisteddfodd.

Amongst the visitors, bidden to their table were several members of the Swiss Legation and the "Schweizerbund." An excellently prepared dinner, served with some of the best vintage wines, created a very happy and carefree atmosphere, little speeches in "Bärndütsch" and "Baslerdütsch" were made and compliments exchanged.

The choir sang a number of songs from their large repertoire in excellent style, and a "Ländlerkapelle" supplied lively dance-music. The Yodelling and singing lasted until midnight whilst in between young and old waltzed to their hearts content.

There was even a "Schnitzelbank" composed on the spot, by the brother of Mr. Siegrist, a former President of the "Schweizerbund", who came over from Basle.

As a token of gratitude for having been able to spend an exceedingly happy evening amidst their countrymen in London the President of the "Yodlerklub" presented to the President of the "Schweizerbund" a beautifully carved "Bärnermutz", this unexpected and generous present was accepted with hearty thanks.

Before the evening came to a close, many wishes for success at the Eisteddfodd were expressed, and everyone left 74, Charlotte Street, with the happy feeling of having had a really good time.
