In 1937, he was elected a member of the Grand Council of his native canton, and five years later (1942) he entered Parliament (States Council) as a Liberal.

Two years later (14th December, 1944), Monsieur Petitpierre was elected a Member of the Federal Government, in succession to Monsieur Pilet-Golaz; since then he has been in charge of the Federal Political Department.

Shortly after the announcement of the election a 22 gun salute was fired at his birthplace in Couvet.

Minister Secrétan was born in Lausanne on the 5th of November, 1895. He studied at the Universities of Lausanne, Basle and Stuttgart. In 1919, he entered the Diplomatic Service as Attaché of Legation. From 1921-1928, Secrétan was a member of the Swiss delegation at the League of Nations in Geneva. In 1928, he left the Diplomatic Service on his election as General Secretary of the International Institute for Intellectual Co-operation in Paris.

In 1939, he returned to the Political Department as head of the section for International Re-union. Two years later (1941) he was promoted to the rank of Counsellor of Legation.
