Federal

Dr. Max Petitpierre, Head of the Federal Political Department (Foreign Office), has been elected President of the Swiss Confederation for the year 1950.

The new President was born on the 26th of February, 1899, in Couvet (Ct. Neuchâtel). He studied law at the Universities of Neuchâtel, Zurich and Munich. His thesis for the doctorate in law dealt with the recognition and execution of foreign judgements.

After the conclusion of his studies, he established himself as an advocate and notary in Neuchâtel. From 1926-31, and again from 1938-44, he was Professor of International law at the University of Neuchâtel.

In 1937, he was elected a member of the Grand Council of his native canton, and five years later (1942) he entered Parliament (States Council) as a Liberal.

Two years later (14th December, 1944), Monsieur Petitpierre was elected a Member of the Federal Government, in succession to Monsieur Pilet-Golaz; since then he has been in charge of the Federal Political Department.

Shortly after the announcement of the election a 22 gun salute was fired at his birthplace in Couvet.

Monsieur Edouard von Steiger, was elected by the two Chambers as Vice-President of the Swiss Confederation.

M. von Steiger was born on July 2nd, 1881, in Langnau (Ct. Berne). He studied jurisprudence at the Universities of Geneva, Leipzig and Berne. On the conclusion of his studies he practised as an advocate, firstly in Langnau, and afterwards in Berne. In 1914, he entered the Grand Council of the canton of Berne over which he presided in 1939. In the same year, he was elected a member of the government of the canton of Berne, and in the following year (December 10th, 1940) he entered the Federal Government, in succession to Federal Councillor R. Minger. Monsieur von Steiger was President of the Swiss Confederation in 1945.

Minister Daniel Secrétan, until recently Swiss Minister in Cairo, has been nominated Swiss Minister at The Hague, in succession to Minister Kohli.

Minister Secrétan was born in Lausanne on the 5th of November, 1895. He studied at the Universities of Lausanne, Basle and Stuttgart. In 1919, he entered the Diplomatic Service as Attaché of Legation. From 1921-1928, Secrétan was a member of the Swiss delegation at the League of Nations in Geneva. In 1928, he left the Diplomatic Service on his election as General Secretary of the International Institute for Intellectual Co-operation in Paris.

In 1939, he returned to the Political Department as head of the section for International Re-union. Two years later (1941) he was promoted to the rank of Counsellor of Legation. Since 1946, he has been at the head of the section of International Organisations. On the occasion of his nomination as a member of the Swiss delegation to UNO in New York, he was promoted to the rank of Minister. In 1948, he was appointed Minister in Egypt.

Monsieur Charles Redard, Swiss Minister in Brazil, has retired from his post on reaching the retiring age.

Minister Redard was born in Verrières (Ct. Neuchâtel) in 1884. He entered the Diplomatic Service in 1911, and was transferred the same year to the Legation in Rio de Janeiro. In 1937, he was nominated Chargé d'Affaires in Lisbon, and four years later (1941) represented our country in the same capacity in Sofia. In 1945, he was promoted to the rank of Minister. At the beginning of 1946, he left Bulgaria, on his appointment as Swiss Minister to Brazil.

The Federal Council has appointed Monsieur Eduard Fer, at present Swiss Minister to the Republics of Argentine and Paraguay to the post of Minister in Brazil, in succession to Minister Charles Redard.

Minister Fer was born in 1894 in Brugg (Ct. Aargau). He studied National Economy at the Uni-

A serious accident happened at the beginning of last month on the "Urner" lake (Lake of Lucerne), when a number of riflemen were returning by a motor boat from a shooting practice.

On approaching Isleten, the boat was caught in a heavy storm and sank, of the seven occupants five were drowned, namely: Hans Gasser, Isenthal, chauffeur, aged 45, married; Alois Gasser, Isenthal, post-master, aged 37, married; Eduard Ziegler, Isenthal, farmer, aged 41, married; Werner Aschwanden Isenthal, boot-maker, aged 23, single; and Johann Aschwanden, Isenthal, farmer, age 20, married.

Peter Arnold and Karl Aschwanden both from Isenthal were saved. [A.T.S.]

Albert Züst, a former States Councillor, has celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary in Lucerne. The "Jubilar" was from 1912-1920 a judge and for the same period a member of the Grand Council of the canton of Lucerne, over which he presided in 1919. From 1920-1929, he was a member of the government of the canton of Lucerne. In 1929, Züst was elected a member of Parliament (States Council), from which he retired in 1943. He is also a "Bankrat" of the Cantonal Bank Lucerne and a Director of a number of industrial concerns. [A.T.S.]

Professor Heinrich Zangger, founder of the "Gerichtsmedizinischen" Institute of the University of Zurich, has celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary. Professor Zangger was awarded the Marcel Benoist Prize in 1926, and is a doctor honoris causa of the Universities of Zurich and Frankfurt a.M. [A.T.S.]

Dr. René Wehrli, has been appointed Conservator of the "Kunsthhaus" Zurich, in succession to Dr. Wartmann, who recently vacated his office. [A.T.S.]

Professor, Dr. Eugen Grossmann, for many years Professor for National Economy at the University of Zurich has, celebrated his 70th birthday anniversary. [A.T.S.]

Otto Pflughard, architect, and former member of the "Kantonsrat" Zurich and member of Parliament

(National Council) has celebrated his 80th birthday anniversary in Zurich. Many public buildings in Zurich have been built from his plans. [A.T.S.]

The Theological Faculty of the University of Marburg (Germany), has nominated Professor Dr. Walter Nigg, the well-known church historian, a doctor honoris causa. [A.T.S.]

Professor Max Huber, the distinguished international lawyer, has celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary in Zurich.

Since he gave up the presidency of the International Committee of the Red Cross five years ago he has lived quietly in retirement in Switzerland. He had been a member of the International Committee since 1923 and was president all through the onerous war years. Vital though his work was in this field, he will probably be best remembered for his work at the International Court of Justice. As a Swiss delegate to the League of Nations he helped to draw up the statute of the International Court, and in 1921 was elected as one of the judges to that court. His distinguished work led to his promotion, at the early age of fifty, to the presidency of the court, which he held until 1931.

In his early days he chose to accept the professorship of constitutional and international law at Zurich rather than enter the Swiss Diplomatic Service. But he was not allowed for long to remain in academic life. During the first world war he served as legal adviser to the Commander-in-Chief of the Swiss Army, and in 1918 he was appointed permanent legal consultant to the Swiss Political Department. From that position he was drawn into the early work of the League and thence to the International Court.

The Gottfried Keller Prize of the "Martin Bodmer Stiftung" has been awarded to the writer Rudolf Kässner, of Siders. [A.T.S.]

Dr. Emil Brunner, Professor of Theology at the University of Zurich, has celebrated his 60th birthday anniversary. Professor Brunner joined the University in 1924 of which he was rector in 1942/44. [A.T.S.]

British exports to Switzerland during November show an appreciable increase of Frs.3.8m. to Frs. 23.8m., compared with October. The figures for August and September were Frs.20.7m. and Frs.18.3m. respectively.

Swiss exports to Britain during November show an even more pronounced advance, supplies having risen by Frs. 6.1m. to Frs.18.1m. against October.

The Swiss National Bank return for the week to December 23 again showed an influx of gold, amounting to Frs.19.5m., bringing gold stocks to a total of Frs. 6,230m. On the other hand foreign exchange holdings declined by Frs.1.1m. to Frs.256m. Due to Christmas requirements the fiduciary issue showed an unusually high increase of Frs.160.6m. to Frs. 4,508m., a rise of Frs.44m. having already been recorded during the previous week.

Switzerland announced the terms of a five-year trade and payments pact with Czechoslovakia, and a compensation agreement for Swiss holdings in nationalised Czech industries and banks. The agreement operates from January 1st.

Compensation payments will amount to 71 million Swiss francs (£5,917,000 sterling), 28 million francs of which is already lodged in Swiss banks, and 43 millions to be paid in half-yearly instalments.

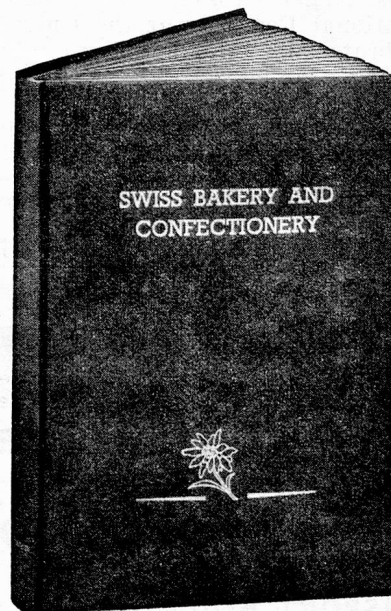

The trade pact fixed Swiss exports to Czechoslovakia in 1950 at 115 million francs (£9,583,000 sterling) in return for goods worth 125 million (£10,417,000 sterling.)

Czechoslovak exports to Switzerland will include iron, sugar, machinery, coal, ceramics, glass, textiles, porcelain, malt, hops, and fodder.

New Gotthard Locomotives.

According to a decision taken in the middle of November, two heavy express locomotives of a new type for the Gotthard Line are to be ordered from Swiss firms. Each locomotive is to cost frs.1.625,000 (approximately £132,870). The mechanical equipment will be built by the Swiss Locomotive & Machine Works, Winterthur, and the electric equipment will be supplied by Brown, Boveri, of Baden. The locomotives will be the first of a new type developed during the past twelve months. Each will be 60 ft. 4½ in. long and will have two six-wheel bogies. The hourly rating of the six traction motors will total 6,000 h.p., enabling the locomotive to haul a 600-tonne train over 1 in 37 gradients at a speed of 43½ to 46½ m.p.h. The maximum speed will be 77.6 m.p.h., and the weight 120 tonnes. If these two locomotives prove successful, more will be ordered.

These locomotives are to be placed in service on the Gotthard Line, where the locomotives now in service, though powerful, cannot cope with the increasing weight of the trains. During 1948-49 approximately 50 per cent. of the Gotthard trains had to be double-headed, and in July last the percentage rose to 70 per cent.

On nous communique des Pays-Bas : à La Haye a lieu une exposition des œuvres peintes par la princesse Wilhelmine. Une grand partie de ces tableaux représente des paysages suisses. Dans une exposition d'eaux-fortes, au musée municipal, on a beaucoup remarqué les travaux de Pauli, Surbeck, Fischer, Carigiet et Max Hunziker. A Amsterdam, le "Cercle des aquarellistes des Pays-Bas" expose des œuvres d'Ernest Morgenthaler; cette manifestation est un grand succès pour ce peintre suisse.

Les villes de Fribourg et de Maestricht ont décidé de nouer d'étroites relations. Une délégation de Maestricht, conduite par le bourguemestre de cette ville, a pris part au dies academicus 1949 de l'Université de Fribourg.

A Arnhem a eu lieu un concert comportant exclusivement des œuvres de compositeurs suisses. On y a joué la "Nuit d'été" et plusieurs chants d'Othmar Schoeck, ainsi que l'oratorio "La vision d'Esaïe" de Willy Burckhardt. La manifestation et les solistes suisses Hélène Fahrni, Ernest Häfiker, Félix Loeffel et Ed. Müller ont remporté un plein succès. A La Haye et à Leyde, ont eu lieu les premières représentations en Hollande de "Kornett" du compositeur suisse Frank Martin (qui vit à Amsterdam) avec le concours de la soliste Elsa Cavelti, qui a été très admirée. L'"Utrechter Studenten Tonheelveeniging" a donné récemment la comédie "Valse en la bémol" de Hans Müller-Einigen.
