A drop or two of Maggi[®] Seasoning gives your dishes a continental piquancy such as you would find in the creations of a master-chef! Use it in your soups, stews, ragouts, hashes, minces, salad dressings, and notice how it "brings out" the flavour, besides adding a subtle savour which is exclusively Maggi[®]. Look out for the distinctive, long-necked bottle with the sprinkler top—and remember that it will last a long time, for it is very, very concentrated.

Two Swiss airmen, M. G. A. Zehr, Editor of the paper "Impartial" and M. Darmstedter, of Geneva, landed on the Dôme du Goûter, a spur of Mont Blanc (14,000 ft.) in a midget Piper Cub plane. Already arrangements have been completed for the opening and for the racing season of the Cresta Run at St. Moritz. Unique in the world, dating back to 1884, to ride the Cresta demands perfection of nerve and body and ranks as a thrill with the Grand National.

Only the devotion of men whose names are closely associated with it — and will be as long as it exists — made reopening of it after the war possible. Under the presidency of Lord Brabazon of Tara, the committee, as strong as that in any sport, set about the job and, with the close collaboration of the Swiss authorities, the famous run is now flourishing once more. The Cresta will be open from "Stream" on December 21st, and from "Junction" on January 5th, and the Curzon Cup will be held at the end of the season in mid-February.

But expenses have increased enormously. By comparison with pre-war days they are double. The main source of income is the annual Cresta Ball, to be held this year at the Dorchester on Wednesday, December 19th, when it is expected that sportsmen from the whole world will attend, for the Cresta, with its tradition, demands no passport and knows of no frontiers. It has one requisite only — fine sportsmanship.

COMMUNIQUE
From Swiss Legation
 re
Swiss interests in Rumania.

An agreement was concluded in December, 1950, providing for compensation to Swiss owners of assets in Rumania which had been nationalized or confiscated. It now appears that a similar arrangement is indicated in respect of Swiss-owned property that is not nationalized. A sale of such property is in present circumstances practically impossible; it yields, moreover, only a modest revenue, which is not even sufficient to cover maintenance costs. The Swiss authorities are, therefore, endeavouring to find a solution with the Rumanian Government for the disposal of this property.

Swiss nationals in the United Kingdom, who have not yet informed the Swiss authorities of their ground properties in Rumania, are, therefore, invited to send, by the 30th October, 1951, to the Swiss Legation in London, 18, Montagu Place, W.1, any details that may help to specify these properties, in particular:

1. Name, address, date of birth, nationality (state if dual national and, in the case of Swiss nationality having been acquired, state when acquired and previous nationality).
2. Location and kind of ground properties; state of the buildings; acquisition documents and date of purchase; annual income from rents, etc.; purchase price; sale price in 1939 and 1944, with attached certificate of Land Register; legalized purchasing contract; inheritance certificate; if possible number of the judicial registration; insurance policy; rates certificates; rents receipts; etc.

This Communiqué applies also to the nationals of the Principality of Liechtenstein residents in Great Britain.
