EDITOR'S POST-BAG.

The Vicarage,
41, Bramber Avenue,
Peacehaven, Sussex.
15th October, 1951.

The Editor,
Swiss Observer,
London, E.C.2.

Once again, I spent my holiday in Switzerland this year, and everywhere — Interlaken, Lugano and Montreux — I found the same spirit of friendliness and hospitality as one always finds in Switzerland.

Only one thing was a little disappointing to me — and I know a number of other visitors share the same feeling — it is that nearly all the churches in the Protestant areas seem to be kept locked. There were, of course, some happy exceptions to this custom; but it seems a pity that amid all the loveliness around, one is debarred from entering God's House to offer thanksgiving for it all. I am sure that if the Protestant authorities could be prevailed upon to leave their churches open, as the Roman Catholics and we Anglicans do, it would be much appreciated by many visitors. Even the noted Church at Thun was locked this time!

With thanks, and every good wish for the future of the "Swiss Observer".

Yours sincerely,

F. R. LONG,
Vicar of Peacehaven.
