The Swiss Federal Assembly, or joint meeting of the two chambers of Parliament have elected Federal Councillor, M. Edouard von Steiger, President of the Confederation for 1951.

M. von Steiger was born on July 2nd, 1881, in Langnau, and belongs to an old Bernese patrician family. He studied juris prudence at the Universities of Geneva, Leipzig and Berne. On the conclusion of his studies he practised as a lawyer firstly in Langnau and afterwards in Berne. In 1914, he entered the Grand Council of the canton of Berne over which he presided in 1939. In the same year, he was elected a member of the government of the canton of Berne, and in the following year (Dec. 10th, 1940) he entered the Federal Government in succession to Federal Councillor R. Minger, as chief of the Federal Department of Justice. He belongs to the Radical Party and was President of the Confederation in 1945.

Federal Councillor Karl Kobelt, has been elected Vice-President of the Swiss Confederation for 1951.

M. Kobelt was born on the 1st of August, 1891, in Marbach (Ct. St. Gall) and was educated in the town of St. Gall. He studied engineering at the Federal Institute of Technology (ETH) in Zurich where he obtained the diploma as a "Bauingenieur".

From 1919-1933, he was chief of section of the Federal Department for "Wasserwirtschaft" in Berne. In 1933, Mr. Kobelt was elected a member of the Government of the canton of St. Gall, and in 1939, he entered Parliament (National Council).

In the army, he was in command of the Infantry regiment 31, and later, on promotion to the rank of Colonel, he occupied the post of chief-of-staff of the 4th army-corps.

In 1940, he entered the Federal Government, in succession to Federal Councillor Baumann, as chief of the Military Department.

Federal Councillor Kobelt is a member of Liberal-Democratic Party, and was President of the Confederation in 1946.

Dr. Aleardo Pini (Radical) was elected President of the National Council for 1951.

Dr. Pini was born in 1907 in Biasca (Ct. Ticino). He studied law at the Universities of Berne and Lausanne, and has since practised as a lawyer in Biasca. In 1931, Pini was elected a member of the Grand Council of the canton of Ticino, at the early age of 24, over which he presided in 1944. He was elected a Member of Parliament (National Council) in 1942. Since 1948, Dr. Pini has occupied the post of Central President of the Swiss Liberal-Democratic party.

The Swiss Federal Assembly has elected Dr. G. Egli, President of the States Council.

The new "Speaker" of the Federal Chamber was born in 1884 in Lucerne. He studied law at the Universities of Munich, Berlin, Vienna and Berne. From 1913-1935, he practised as a lawyer in Lucerne. In 1935, Dr. Egli was elected a member of the cantonal Government, and a member of the States Council (Ständerat).

Dr. Karl Renold has been elected Vice-President of the National Council. He was born in 1888, in Dättwil, near Baden. After having studied law at the Universities of Zurich, Berne and Leipzig, he practised as a lawyer in Baden. From 1917-1925, he held the appointment as "Staatsschreiber" of the canton of Aargau, and since 1925 he has been in charge of the Insurance Office of his native canton. In 1942, he was elected a member of Parliament (National Council), representing the B-G-B-party. In the army, he holds the rank of Colonel.

Dr. Bixio Bossi, newly elected Vice-President of the States Council, was born in 1896, in Lugano. He studied law at the Universities of Berne and Geneva and is practising as a lawyer in Lugano.

The Swiss people decided in a referendum that extraordinary war time taxes, levied by the Federal Government since 1940, should become constitutional and continue for the next four years.

Two coaches with pneumatic tyres are now in use on the Swiss State Railways. They will be used for tours at first, and later they will be run in trains of light steel coaches. Both coaches were built in Switzerland; one is of steel construction, has seating for 76 passengers, and weighs only 5.1 tons. The other is a 46-seater whose light alloy coachwork weighs only 3,250 kilograms, a reduction of 68 per cent. on the normal weight of a light steel coach.

The Swiss Government clamped down on all exports likely to aid any country's war machine. Lead, zinc, tin, aluminium, scrap iron, glycerine, bones, skins, cotton, and wool waste are banned. Export licences will be needed for petrol, rubber, wool, and many drugs. These include penicillin and streptomycin, which Russia has been buying in large quantities.

A Swiss banking group has founded the S.I.M.A. (Swiss Immobile-Property-Investment) Trust. Purpose is to acquire properties in Switzerland in order to take advantage of the rising price levels of property in the country.

Switzerland's imports during the first nine months of 1950 amounted to 3,026.7 million francs, an increase of nearly 220 million francs compared with the same period of 1949. Exports amounted to 2,643.1 million francs, an increase of more than 147 million francs. Switzerland's principal customers during this period were Italy (339.2 million francs), the United States (337 million francs), France (263.3 million francs), Germany (239.4 million francs), Belgium-Luxemburg Union (200.9 million francs) and Great Britain (69.9 million francs). Her principal sources of supply were the United States (425.9 million francs), France (330.8 million francs), Germany (325.4 million francs), Great Britain (261.5 million francs), Italy (235.9 million francs), Belgium-Luxembourg Union (154 million francs), the Netherlands (110.2 million francs), and Argentina (96.1 million francs).

COMMUNIQUE.

SWISS INTERESTS IN RUMANIA.

By a notice dated February 16th, 1949, Swiss nationals resident in the United Kingdom were invited to register, as a precautionary measure, any asset (such as Government loans, debentures, cash vouchers, mortgage certificates, land charge notes, participation in nationalized industries, real estate in whatever form, etc., etc.) they might have in Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Rumania and Czechoslovakia.

As negotiations will begin between Switzerland and Rumania in February, 1951, a last opportunity of registering any claim is given to those Swiss nationals who have not yet notified their claim either to the Swiss Compensation Office in Zurich or the Federal Political Department in Berne or the Swiss Legation in London. Any Swiss national concerned should approach without delay the Swiss Legation in London, 18, Montagu Place, W.1, who will be glad to furnish the necessary forms and to give all information regarding the procedure to be followed.

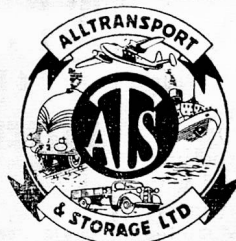

This communique concerns also nationals of the Principality of Liechtenstein who may be resident in Great Britain.
