THE SWISS CLUB OF JERSEY.

First Christmas Dinner and Dance.

Founded last July, the Swiss Club of Jersey recently held its first Christmas dinner and dance, and the function can be written down as a great success. It was held in the beautifully-decorated ballroom of the Sarum Hotel in St. Helier and some 50 members of the local Swiss colony were present with their friends.

After a dinner excellently served the Club's actual President, Mr. Pierre Galitsch, spoke in French and English, offering a warm welcome to the many guests. The Swiss and English national anthems were then sung, the loyal toast honoured in Swiss wine and the company then left the tables to take part in the dance.

Various competitions were held and the prizes distributed and midnight came all too quickly, the company dispersing but looking forward to a next dance the club will hold at its Sarum Hotel headquarters.

Every Swiss having the opportunity to come to Jersey will always be warmly welcomed by the Committee's Members which address is:

Mr. Pierre Galitsch, Continental Hairdresser,
Le Motte Street, St. Helier.

Mr. J. E. Blum, Dir. St. Brelades Bay Hotel,
St. Brelades.
