TO MOTHER.

What would we give —
For one brief hour again —
To smile, to wait, to read —
And give a cup of tea — to Mother.

A comfy bed to make each day —
A cheery fire to light —
Flowers arrayed the special way —
To give delight — to Mother.

Give now your best —
Wait not another day —
Give violets to the parent heart —
They all belong — to Mother.

The days fleet swiftly by —
Are lost in daily cares —
A query — then a humble sigh —
Too late — to give — to Mother.

Mary Brandwood.
