SWISS COLONY'S GUIDE. Second Edition.

The London Group of the Nouvelle Société Helvétique has much pleasure in announcing that the Second Edition of its "Guide to the Swiss Colony in Great Britain" is now available. It is brought up-to-date, more complete and with a map of some of the places of interest for the Swiss in London. The N.S.H. would like to thank most cordially all those who have made this second edition possible, viz. Our Minister, Monsieur Henry de Torrenté, the Societies and organisations of the Colony and the many firms included in the Guide, including especially, the printers. The main credit for the work involved is due to Miss Alice Gretener, Hon. Secretary, N.S.H. London.

Unfortunately it has become necessary to charge 1/- post free for the Guide or 9d. in bulk. Orders to the Hon. Secretary N.S.H., Swiss House, 35, Fitzroy Square, W.1. Any profits will go to the Swiss Benevolent Society, which has received £50 on account of the First Edition.

Dr. E.

It is with great pleasure that we offer our sincere congratulations to Dr. Samuel Schweizer, hitherto Manager of the Head Office of the Swiss Bank Corporation in Basle, on his promotion to be a General Manager. Dr. Schweizer served for a number of years with the bank in London and is well-known to many members of the Swiss Colony here.

Dr. Fritz Lieblich, who is promoted to be a Manager of the Corporation in Basle and whose duties will be with the General Management, is also an old friend of many members of the Swiss Colony from the time when he served with the bank's London Office. To him also we offer our congratulations.

We are also glad to hear of the appointment of Mr. Jean-Marcel Rueff and of Mr. Theodor von Speyr to be Sub-Managers of the Swiss Bank Corporation in London. Mr. Rueff bears a name honoured in the annals of the Swiss Bank Corporation in London, and Mr. von Speyr made many friends during his time in charge of the Regent Street Branch of the Corporation.

Congratulations are also due to 3 further members of the London Staff who have been promoted to the office of signature holder : Mr. G. P. B. Hassell, Mr. Max Heilinger — known especially to the Members of the Swiss Mercantile Society, and Mr. Yves Maunoir.
