The Federal Council has appointed Monsieur Charles Humbert, at present Chargé d'Affaires in Chile, to the post of Swiss Minister in Czecho-Slovakia, in succession to Minister Hohl who has been recently transferred to Japan.

The newly appointed Minister was born in Berne in 1901 and is a citizen of Le Locle and Berne. He studied law at the Universities of Heidelberg, Vienna and Berne.

Dr. Charles Humbert entered the Diplomatic Service in 1928, and acted previously as Consular Attaché at Milan, La Paz, Caracas (Santiago de Chile, Buenos Aires, Leipzig and Paris. In 1943, he was promoted to the rank of Counsellor of Legation, and three years later (1946) was transferred to Chile as Chargé d'Affaires.

Dr. Jean Decroux has been nominated Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary to the Republic of Hungary, in succession to Minister Grässli who has been transferred to India.

Minister Decroux was born in 1903 in Bussigny sur Morges, and is a citizen of Bulle. He entered the Diplomatic Service in 1927, and held successive Consular appointments in Mannheim, Riga, Nantes and Oslo. In 1940, he was promoted to the rank of Secretary of Legation and three years later (1943) whilst at Vichy, to the rank of Counsellor of Legation. He returned to Berne in 1944, and the following year acted as Chargé d'Affaires in Oslo. Recently, he held an important post at the Foreign Office in Berne.

The Indian Government has raised their Berne Legation to the rank of Embassy. Minister Yezdesard Dinshaw Gundevia has presented his credentials as Ambassador to the President of the Swiss Confederation.

The Federal Council has delegated Federal-Councillor Escher, Head of the Post and Railway

Department, to the Conference of Ministers of Transport which will take place at Brussels next month.

The hobby for all the family.

Making personal movies with the Bolex L8 is as easy as taking snapshots — and much more exciting. It's not expensive either. The Bolex L8 uses 8mm. film costing just over a pound a reel, including processing charge. You get two dozen or more good length shots on a reel, which works out at under 11d. each. Start making family movies this summer.

The monastery of Hauterive, near the Swiss city of Fribourg, has celebrated the eighth centenary of the death of the founder of the Cistercian Order. The building was founded in 1138 and was occupied by members of the Order until 1848 when certain Swiss cantons drew up the Sonderbund, a defensive pact dealing with religious as well as other matters. Afterwards it was used for teaching students and not handed back to the monks until 1939. Among its fine architecture and sculpture are stalls in the style of the Bourgogne school of the 15th century.

Well-known in the world of letters is the Veillon Prize, a 5,000 franc award which Mr. Charles Veillon of Lausanne gives every year in a competition open to French-speaking authors. Now he is offering an additional 5,000 francs, open to writers of all countries, for the best novel written in German.

Besides this, the Welti Foundation is offering 3,000 francs to the author of the best play written in one of Switzerland's four national languages between January 1st, 1951, and November 30th, 1953. Radio Basel is to award a thousand francs to the writer of the best epic poem. To celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the death of Jeremias Gotthelf, the cantonal government of Berne is holding a competition for dramatised versions taken from the Bernese writer's work. And finally, a Berlin publisher announces a competition, open to German-speaking Swiss, for the best novel appearing this year — with a prize of 5,000 German marks.
