A DATE TO REMEMBER. Bazaar of the Swiss Church.

On Saturday, 13th November, the two communities of the Swiss Protestant Church in London will hold a bazaar at the Lecture Hall, Kingsway Hall, Kingsway, W.C.2. (near Holborn Tube Station) from 2-8 p.m. The sale will be in aid of both the French and German speaking parishes whose funds show a considerable deficit particularly owing to heavy repairs to the church roof. Madame de Torrenté has kindly consented to open the bazaar. There will be several attractive stalls of Swiss articles, children's clothing, produce and a variety of fancy goods which will make it easy to select Christmas presents. A large number of second-hand books of value to collectors of works on classics and art (mainly in German) will be on sale. The organisers intend to make it a real family party with a special children's corner and a "lucky dip". Teas and light refreshments will also be served.

Some of our compatriots and friends may not only wish to come to the bazaar but also to send gifts to be sold. Any new articles, needlework, home-made jam, sugar and tea can be taken on the afternoon or be sent beforehand to:—

Mrs. F. G. Sommer, Hepple Lodge, Holly Park, N.4.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. Reverdin, 7, Park View Road, Finchley, N.3.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. Spoerri, 1, Womersley Road, N.8.

Biscuits, cakes and tartlets are other items which will be most welcome. The organising committee wish to thank all donors for their kind help.
