EDITOR'S POST-BAG.

The Editor,
The Swiss Observer,
23, Leonard Street,
London, E.C.2.

Dear Mr. Stauffer,

Many gifts in kind and in money were received by us in response to the Christmas Appeals which you so kindly published in your two November issues. The Committee is most grateful to all donors, individuals and firms, for their magnificent generosity, including those who preferred to remain anonymous and to whom no personal acknowledgment could be sent.

The Committee is very much indebted also to all the willing helpers, who gave their time to the good cause and made it possible for 156 individual and family parcels, benefiting 239 people in all, to be ready in good time for delivery before Christmas: the Nähverein, Réunion de Couture, Schwyzerchränzli and the Réunion de Jeunes Filles, who made so many useful garments and in some cases even provided the necessary material; Mesdames Bachofen, Boller, Fichter, Jenne, Merz, Raulin, Renz and Ziereisen, as well as Messrs. Boller jr., Jenne, Kubler, Ritter and Wissler, who went on shopping expeditions for us or gave much time to measuring, sorting, allocating and packing garments etc., posting or delivering parcels, in the latter of which Bill Yates, of "Bill Yates and His Music", also very kindly obliged.

How much all this big joint effort has been appreciated is told in the numerous letters of thanks which have been rolling into 31 Conway Street ever since.

We would be grateful if you could allow space to publish this letter in your next issue.

Yours very truly,
SWISS BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

J. Zimmermann,
Secretary.

MORE TRAVEL TOURIST CLASS.

Swissair traffic figures for the third quarter of 1953 show a considerable increase over the same period last year, mainly as a result of the introduction of tourist class flights at greatly reduced fares.

During the first nine months of 1953 Swissair have flown a total of 297,502 passengers — 5,161 more than were carried during the whole of 1952.

Compared with the third quarter of last year the company's revenue has increased by nearly a third, despite the fact that tourist class fares are a third below normal rates.
