FOR SWISS NATIONALS LIVING ABROAD DÜRRENAESCH (Switzerland)

The "Home for Swiss nationals from abroad at Dürrenaesch—situated on the idyllic wooded hills between Wynental and the Seetal (lake of Hallwil) in the canton of Aargau — offers its Swiss guests from abroad a "pied-à-terre" in their homeland which will give Swiss nationals living abroad the necessary contact with their mother country.

Holidays and country-life at the "Home"

in Dürrenaesch are open to all Swiss nationals living abroad. The "Home" guest pays the moderate daily price of Sw.Fr. 5.— for full board and, as a favour to the "Home", agrees to assist in the running of one of the self-supporting establishments. Each guest is free to choose the kind of help he would like to give outside his otherwise very considerable spare time.

Application for admittance must be made in writing and confirmed by the "Home."

Holidays and country-life at the "Home" are a great event at all seasons. For this reason the "Home" remains open all the year round.

Please ask for prospectuses containing conditions of admission (charges for board etc.) and application forms—without any obligation—from the

"HOME" FOR SWISS NATIONALS LIVING ABROAD, DURRENAESCH (Aargau, Switzerland)

After a memorable excursion on the lake of Lucerne aboard 'Schiller', our guests from abroad went to the Rütli to celebrate the 1st of August at the spot where the Confederation was born.
