He further expressed his appreciation to our Entertainments Committee who had made all the arrangements for this most enjoyable evening.

May we also say many thanks to Mrs. Frick who presented the prizes.

NOUVELLE SOCIÉTÉ HELVÉTIQUE
Film Show.

The film show for the Colony by the above Society took place on Saturday, December 17th, 1955, at the Conway Hall, Red Lion Square, W.C.2.

Owing to the close proximity of Christmas the date chosen was perhaps a mistake, and, no doubt, accounted for the small attendance, which was a great pity, as the films shown were excellent and most interesting. Those, who, for one reason or another, were unable to attend missed a really fine performance, the coloured film featuring the "Fête des Vignerons" in Vevey, was superb.

No less interesting were the News Films (Journal Pathés) portraying various topical events which had happened in Switzerland during the year 1955, such as the visit of the Emperor of Ethiopia, the 80th birthday celebration of General Guisan, the funeral of the late Federal Councillor Dr. Escher, sports events, etc., etc.

Most amusing was the film "Meet my family", portraying the life of a numerous Bernese family.

We congratulate the Nouvelle Société Helvétique for having given us an opportunity of seeing these excellent films, and only regret that the attendance was not more substantial.
