OBITUARY.

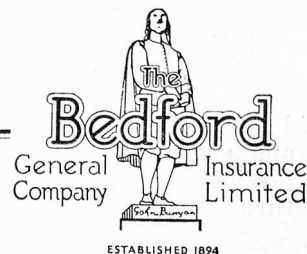

It is with deepest sorrow and regret that the Committee of the Unione Ticinese have to announce the sudden death of their member Linda Berti, née Diviani, who died as a result of a road accident on Tuesday, 29th May, 1956.

Mrs. Berti, widow of the late Ernest Berti, was a member of the Committee of the Ladies Section of the Society for twelve years and for a time she held the position of Secretary. Up to the death of her husband she was always active in every sphere of the Society's interests and with her passing we mourn the loss of a true and faithful friend.

The Funeral took place from 48, Mornington Terrace, the home of her parents, on Wednesday, 6th June, and a Requiem Mass attended by many relatives and friends was said at St. Joseph's Retreat, Highgate, N.19. The Interment took place at St. Pancras, Finchley, in a private grave.

To the members of the Diviani and Berti families, to whom fate has dealt such severe blows within a short space of time we tender our deepest sympathy and on Linda's grave we place the flower of perennial remembrance.
