Federal

The Federal Council has appointed Dr. Agostino Soldati to the post of Permanent Observer to the United Nations in New York, with the rank of Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary. He is succeeding Minister August Lindt, who has been nominated United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

Minister Soldati was born in 1910 and is a citizen of Neggio (Ct. Ticino). He entered the service of the Federal Political Department (Swiss Foreign Office) in 1938 and successively occupied posts at the Swiss Legations in Rome, Berlin, Lisbon and Paris. In 1951 he was promoted to the rank of Counsellor of Legation.

As reported in our last issue, the appointment of Minister Dr. Auguste Lindt as United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees has been confirmed.

Minister Lindt was born at Berne in 1903 and studied law at the Universities of Geneva and Berne. From 1927 to 1940 he was special correspondent of several European newspapers. He served in the Swiss army from 1940 to 1945, and afterwards was appointed special delegate of the "Don Suisse" in Berlin.

Dr. Lindt was Press Attaché and later Press Counsellor at the Swiss Legation in London from 1946 to 1948. In the latter year he became Switzerland's representative on the Executive Board of UNICEF and, in 1953, was appointed the Executive Board's Chairman.

Counsellor of Legation Dr. René Keller, head of the Information and Press Service at the Federal Political Department in Berne, has been transferred to the Swiss Legation in Paris in the capacity of 1st Counsellor.

Dr. Keller was born in Paris in 1914 and spent the first five years of his life there. From 1919 to 1939 he lived at Geneva where in 1933 he matriculated. Then followed one year at Cambridge University (Trinity College) where he studied law. In 1937 he became Licencié en droit of the Geneva University and a year later he was a stagiaire at the Dresdner Bank in Berlin, where he specialised on documentary credits which later became the theme of his dissertation. At the outbreak of the last war he joined his unit (heavy artillery) as lieutenant, and after his release from his regiment he entered the service of the Federal Political Department in Berne, having in the meantime acquired the degree of Doctor of Law at the Geneva University.

At the beginning of 1941 Dr. Keller was transferred to Prague as Vice-Consul, returning in 1945 to Berne where he occupied a post in the administrative section of the Federal Political Department with the rank of 2nd Secretary of Legation. A year later (1946) he was sent to the Swiss Legation at The Hague where he remained until September 1950, when he joined the Swiss Legation in London with the rank of 1st Secretary of Legation. In 1954 Dr. Keller was appointed head of the Information and Press Service at the Federal Political Department with the rank of Counsellor of Legation.

The President of the Swiss Confederation, Dr. H. Streuli, has sent a telegram of condolence to the Austrian Chancellor on the occasion of the death of the President of the Austrian Republic, Dr. Theodor Koerner.

The Swiss Government has ordered the Federal Attorney's office to conduct a full investigation into Swiss arms purchases.

The drama company of the Zurich "Schauspielhaus" has been invited to take part, in 1957, at the Edinburgh Festival.

The National Council (Lower House of the Swiss Federal Parliament) has approved an atomic co-operation agreement with the U.S. under which Switzerland will receive 500 kilograms of uranium fuel.

Ratification of the agreement, signed last June by the two Governments, was authorised by 126 votes to four, with a number of abstentions. The Council of States (Upper House) had approved the agreement previously. — (Reuter.)

The Swiss passenger boat Basilea, with 28 double cabins and space for 12 cars, will come into service between Basle and Rotterdam as from April of this year.

Its voyages, beginning on Saturdays every other week, will take three days down-stream from Basle to Rotterdam and five days back.

Outside the tourist season, the Basilea can carry 400 tons of cargo, her specially shallow draught enabling her to sail even when the Rhine falls very low. — (Reuter.)

A record number of 12,800,207 people visited Swiss hotels, boarding houses and rest houses last summer.

The Swiss Government is to contribute £4,375,000 towards the £15,000,000 cost of modernizing and enlarging Zurich's Kloten international airport.

The Union of Helvetia, the organisation of Swiss hotel staffs, has agreed to a standardised system of tipping — referred to as service charges — which will figure on all hotel bills from April 1, 1957.

A charge of 15 per cent. will be added to the bill for stays of one or two nights, and 12 per cent. for three or more nights. This fee will be credited in full to the hotel employees. Guests may give extra at their discretion to reward services outside the daily routine.

Coaches more than 7ft. 4½in wide have been banned from the Orsieres-Grand St. Bernard road by the Swiss Federal authorities. Formerly the ban existed for local vehicles only, coaches from foreign countries being allowed to be up to 8ft. 2½in wide.

Swiss Hotels.

There are stories circulating in Great Britain to the effect that Swiss Hotels will not be heated adequately this coming Winter Season, owing to a shortage of fuel.

We are officially advised by the Swiss Hotel-keepers Association that these rumours are entirely without foundation. All Hotels will be well heated as usual and therefore be comfortable and cosy throughout the Winter.

The Time-Table Robot.

A new automatic time-table in the Main Railway Station at Zurich can be consulted for information on any destination within Switzerland. All you have to do is to look the place up in the alphabetical list, drop a 20 centimes coin into a key-numbered slot and pick up a sheet from the official train-schedule, popping out of the machine complete with useful particulars on train connections between Zurich and the place in question, restaurants and hotels there, as well as a special "bon voyage" surprise — a crossword puzzle. The Swiss Federal Railways intend to put up more timetable robots in other important railway stations throughout Switzerland.

New Model Hotels and Motels in Switzerland.

A joint-stock company has recently been founded under the auspices of the Touring Club of Switzerland in order to promote the construction of three "model hotels" which are to feature special "motel" facilities. One will be built on the outskirts of Geneva, another one at Vira-Cambarogno on Lake Maggiore, and the third near Ragaz Spa. Moreover negotiations are in progress between the TCS and Swiss hotels with regard to the realization of another three-motel project. These three motels, although designed by TCS experts, will be built entirely at the cost of the Swiss hoteliers.

Some 650 years ago, the town of Altdorf was the alleged home of Switzerland's legendary national hero, William Tell. Last summer Schiller's drama "Wilhelm Tell" was performed here by local players seventeen times, and each performance at the Tell Playhouse, which is now equipped with a modern revolving stage, was completely sold out. Encouraged by this success, the Altdorf Tell Play Society has just decided to stage another Tell festival this summer.

Hints of no less than 684 Sports Meetings, cultural and social events, exhibitions and other important highlights of the Swiss winter season ending April 30, 1957, are contained in the booklet "Winter in Switzerland 1956/7" which has just come off the press in three separate editions (English, French and German). Published by the Swiss National Tourist Office, it also features original sketches by Hans Wullschleger. The last two of its 31 pages are devoted to a short preview of 55 outstanding events of the 1957 Swiss summer season.
