ANNIVERSARIES.

Minister Dr. h.c. Walter Stucki (70) of Berne. The "Jubilar" was born in 1888 in Berne, and is a citizen of Konolfingen (Ct. Berne.) He studied law at the Universities of Munich, Paris and London, and afterwards practised for several years as a lawyer in Berne.

In 1917, he entered the service of the Federal Economic Department occupying the post of General Secretary. This office he left in 1919, to take up again his practice as a lawyer. Six years later (1925) he was elected Director of the commercial section of the Federal Economic Department; in this capacity he led the economic negotiations of the Confederation with foreign countries which resulted in the conclusion of numerous commercial treaties. He presided over various national and international commissions, and in 1933 was elected President of the Economic Council of the League of Nations; in the same year he received the title of Minister, and was honoured by the University of Basle with the degree of doctor honoris causa.

Minister Stucki retired in 1935 from the Federal Administration, on his election as a Member of the National Council, but in the capacity of Delegate of the Federal Council with the rank of Minister continued negotiating with foreign countries.

In 1938 he was nominated Swiss Minister in Paris, and when the Legation was transferred to Vichy he was untiring in trying to obtain from the German occupying authorities more humanitarian concessions, which brought him the appreciation not only from the French Government but also from the French population. On his return to Berne in 1945 Minister Stucki was entrusted with the post of Chief of the Foreign section of the Federal Political Department; a year later (1946) he gave up his post on having been nominated Delegate of the Federal Council for Special Missions. This appointment took him to many countries as head of economic missions. From this post he retired in 1954, but he is still at the disposal of the Political Department.

National Councillor Gottlieb Duttweiler (70) of Zurich. He received his education in his home town, after which he entered the firm of Pfister & Co., in 1910. Seven years later (1917) he became associated with the firm Pfister & Duttweiler. On their behalf he travelled widely in many European and Overseas countries. From 1923 to 1924, he was farming in Brazil. In 1925, he founded the "Migros A.G.", which concern he donated in 1941 to his customers.

Duttweiler was from 1935 to 1940, and from 1943 to 1949, a member of the National Council, from 1949 to 1951, he sat in the States Council, and since then again in the National Council. He has been for many years a member of a number of parliamentary commissions. He is also the founder of the paper "Die Tat", the "Hotel Plan", the "Erwachsenenschulen", the "Klub Konzerte", and a number of similar cultural organisations. He has extensively written articles on economic, political and social subjects.

On the occasion of his 70th birthday, the commune of Capolago has bestowed on him honorary citizenship, for his support given to the Monte Generoso railway.

* * *

National Councillor, Dr. Karl Renold (70) of Aarau. He was for many years, until 1956, head of the Insurance Office of the canton of Aargau, and since 1943 a Member of Parliament. He presided over the National Council in 1951/52. Dr. Renold was at one time commander of the 5th frontier brigade.

* * *

Dr. Rudolf Schmid (70) of Baar. The septuagenarian was for a number of years President of the community of Baar, he sat in the "Kantonsrat" Zug for ten years, and was a member of the Government of the canton of Zug for eleven years. For 20 years he occupied the post of a member of the Superior Court of the canton of Zug.

* * *

Norbert Bosset (75) of Avenches. He was a member of the Grand Council of the canton of Vaud from 1909 to 1922, a member of the Government of the canton of Vaud from 1922 to 1946. He sat in the States Council from 1928 to 1947, over which he presided in 1942/43.
