THE 2nd CENTENARY OF THE EGLISE SUISSE

There is no need to explain to Members of the Colony the work done by the Eglise Suisse de Londres, or to enlarge on its great need for better accommodation and facilities for its work among the young people. We are all only too aware of it.

In the Spring of 1962 this great institution will celebrate its 2nd Centenary, which in itself is a wonderful achievement. This great anniversary will be marked by an Appeal, both here and in Switzerland, which should provide us with the funds required for rebuilding and also to ensure the continuity of the work in the future.

More will be published later on, but meanwhile a Committee of Appeal has been formed under the Chairmanship of Mr. F. G. Sommer. Various members of the Colony have promised their support and will join that Committee but, for efficiency's sake, an Executive Committee has been formed as follows:—

President:	Monsieur F. G. Sommer
Vice-President:	Monsieur O. Béguin
Hon. Secretary:	Monsieur A. Renou
Hon. Treasurer:	Monsieur R. Keller
Members:	MM. Revillod Thomas Christen Nater

Their task is a very heavy one, and we hope, therefore, that all Members of the Colony will do all they can, not only to support the Appeal but to speak to their friends in Switzerland, asking them to make their contribution, however modest.
