The gift of making friends is one of God's best gifts, out of one's self, and seeing and appreciating whatever involves many things, but above all, the power of going to and loving in another man. (Thomas Hughes 1822-96)

Dear Compatriots,
My wife and I wish you all a Happy New Year. We have been in this hospitable country nearly a year, and it has been a pleasure for us to make the acquaintance of so many of you and to join in the activities of your Societies. We hope to meet yet many of our countrymen in months to come, when we visit North England, Scotland and Wales, as we visited Manchester a short time ago.

1964 brought us our Sixth National Exhibition, and so gave to us a great number of us a wonderful opportunity to deepen our awareness of our national values and to find us as determined as ever to uphold our ideals and help bring out new solutions.

May God bless you and your Churches and our Societies, which us close to our Motherland, Christmas 1964.

May He bless also our Churches and our Societies, which us such a vital part in keeping our Motherland,
Christmas 1964.
