FRAUENVEREIN (WOMEN'S CIRCLE)

The Annual General Meeting of the Women's Circle of the Swiss Church (Schweizerkirche) was held at the Swiss Hostel for Girls in Belsize Grove, Hampstead, on 2nd March. We all enjoyed an excellent lunch. After coffee our very able President, Mrs. R. Senn, reviewed our activities during 1964.

A special vote of thanks was accorded to Mrs. F. Burgunder for all the work she had done in the past and which she was continuing at home for the Frauenverein, spending many hours at her knitting machine.

In the course of 1964, a sad note was struck at our otherwise happy functions in as much as our member Mrs. M. Wiesendanger passed away. A donation in her memory was voted to the Swiss Benevolent Society.

On Saturday, 31st October, the Church Bazaar was held at Central Hall Westminster, and outstanding support received by every member ensured an unqualified success.

Members also helped with refreshments after a Communal Service with the Anglican Community of St. Mary Woolnoth and at the Family Christmas Service in December.

Mrs. Senn concluded her report by reading a few extracts from letters received by the Swiss Benevolent Society from grateful compatriots in need whose Christmas parcels had included garments sewn and knitted by our members in the course of the year.

Mrs. P. Moehr, our Honorary Treasurer, presented the accounts for 1964.

The Frauenverein was happy to have Madame de Fischer, wife of our Ambassador, as Guest of Honour, specially as she had taken an active interest all during the year. It was also a pleasure to have our past President, Mrs. F. G. Sommer, in our midst.

I don't want to close this report without reminding any Swiss ladies who could find the time to be present once a month at our happy meetings at the Eglise Suisse, 79 Endell Street (nearest Underground stations Tottenham Court Road or Holborn) every first Tuesday of the month, at 1.30 p.m. Every new member will be warmly welcome!

E. WEBER.
