Did you know

that one of the biggest names in world banking is the

Midland Bank Group

— and that it is British

The Group has over 3,400 branches which provide a complete range of banking facilities, including executor and trustee services and hire purchase finance.

There are 4 banks in the Group: the Midland Bank; the Clydesdale Bank; the Belfast Banking Company; and the Northern Bank. Between them they cover England, Scotland, Wales, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and Ireland. In addition Forward Trust provides hire purchase finance throughout the United Kingdom.

Did you know... that the Group, through the Midland's Overseas Branch in London — and over 21,000 banking correspondents in countries outside Great Britain carries on the largest overseas banking business in the world?

And that Midland and International Banks Limited, which was established by the Midland Bank, The Commercial Bank of Australia, The Standard Bank and The Toronto-Dominion Bank, provides funds for large scale projects and financial operations in all parts of the world?

Did you know... that the Group has an office in New York, branches on board the Cunard liners 'Queen Mary', 'Queen Elizabeth' and 'Caronia', and offices at London, Manchester and Prestwick Airports?

Did you know... that all these services are available to you through the nearest branch of any of the Banks in the Group?

Midland Bank Group comprises —

MIDLAND BANK • CLYDESDALE BANK • BELFAST BANKING COMPANY • NORTHERN BANK • FORWARD TRUST
