NEWS FROM MONTREUX

At the invitation of the municipalities of Montreux and Veytaux, a representative body of foreign residents of different nationalities has given support to the creation of the "CLUB INTERNATIONAL DE MONTREUX", open both to foreign and Swiss residents alike, having as its object to allow the two groups to meet socially and to link the foreign residents of the area with the authorities and the population. A clubroom is placed at the disposal at the Casino of Montreux by the municipalities, and a qualified person will be in permanent attendance for giving information and rendering services. Mr. William B. Sigerist, a Swiss resident of Territet, has been elected President. Congratulations!

SWISS BANK CORPORATION

The Swiss Bank Corporation, London, will issue Negotiable Sterling Certificates of Deposit as soon as the secondary market for such certificates opens, probably later this month. The minimum denomination of certificates issued will be £50,000, in line with market arrangements.

The Bank already issues U.S. Dollar Certificates of Deposit.
