Immediate aid

you immediately a lump sum compensation in Swiss francs in cash.

This is how the Solidarity Fund has recently helped a member

The commercial employee K worked at an overseas branch of a Swiss firm. A new immigration law came into force, and he lost his employment because, in future, his job could only be filled by a national of that country. The member of the Solidarity Fund had to look for new employment as his Swiss parent company could not employ him elsewhere.

The Solidarity Fund paid him a lump sum of 7,500 Swiss francs based on his annual savings contribution of Sw. Fr. 75. Incidentally, of these he may, in addition, claim a considerable refund.

Nobody knows what the future brings. But as a member of the Solidarity Fund one has the security of a lump sum payment should something go wrong.

Applications should be made direct to the Solidarity Fund of the Swiss Abroad, Gutenbergstrasse 6, CH-3011 Berne, or to the nearest Swiss Embassy or Consulate.

One thing I can see clearly – the Solidarity Fund!

And what I have slaved for and saved – it seems –

it seems – Unexpected, undeserved misery and distress:
Work, home and bread are lost.

If it happened here – what would become of you?

That is why you should insure against loss of livelihood through interior strife or general political measures of coercion. Do that with the Solidarity Fund of the Swiss Abroad. It will pay
