Switzerland from day to day

8th August

The well-known children's book Flurina by Selina Chönaz and Alois Carigiet, which had been made into a short film by the Condor-Film AG, was presented to French television viewers by ORTF.

13th August

At Saignelégier, the 70th "Marché Concours" was opened. 5,000 people from all parts of Switzerland and from neighbouring countries helped in choosing the finest thoroughbred horse of the Franches Montagnes.

21st August

It was announced that a 20-minute film was to be made during the International Music Festival in Lucerne by the Condor-Film AG, Zurich. The project could be realised thanks to the Swiss Music Association, the foundation International Music Festival Lucerne, the Swiss National Tourist Office and others. Henri Raschle is the producer as well as the script writer. Scenery and photography are in the hands of Andreas Demmer and Henri Théron.

The reason for such a film is the 30th anniversary of the Swiss Festival Orchestra and the jubilee of the founding of the Lucerne Music Festival 35 years ago. The première of this film will take place during the opening of the International Music Festival in 1974.

25th/26th August
