OBITUARIES (continued)

Iselins were in New York. Then followed a period of four years in Cologne/Bonn and another stay in Berne (1963-1969).

In 1969, Juerg and Elisabeth Iselin arrived in London where they soon became very popular members of the Swiss Community. Dr. Iselin advanced from Counsellor to Minister, and his wife helped the Ambassador, a bachelor, in the Embassy's representative and social life. This she did with great skill, and the many visitors entertained in the Iselins' lovely flat in Regent's Park remember with pleasure their generous hospitality. But Elisabeth Iselin also had time to take part in welfare work in the Colony, which was much appreciated.

In February 1975, Monsieur le Ministre and Madame Iselin returned to Berne and their beloved house at Zollikofen. Again, Elisabeth Iselin led an active life, taking on the function of a secretary of the "Groupe des Dames du Département Politique". In March last year, she had the first of several operations, and a time of great pain and suffering followed. But she carried it with great courage and faith right to the end.

Elisabeth Iselin's many friends will remember her with affection as a forthright person, with many interests, especially in sport, but above all her happy, friendly nature and her ever-ready willingness to help. Their deep sympathy goes out to her husband, daughter and son-in-law in their great sorrow.

HANS FISCHER

It is with deep regret that we announce the sudden death of Brigadier Hans Walter Fischer, of Zelggaessli 75, 3613 Steffisburg. Colonel Fischer, citizen of Winterthur, was born on 15th February, 1926 and had a distinguished army career, including a period in 1968 when he attended the British Army College. He and his wife came to London in December, 1973, and he was Defence Attaché, accredited also to the Netherlands and Ireland. The Fischers were well known in the Swiss community and had many friends.

In November, 1977, they left Britain, and on 1st January, 1978, Colonel Fischer was promoted to Brigadier, head of the Section for Transport Troops.

We extend our deep sympathy to his wife Liselotte and their son in their great bereavement.
