Vade-mecum

At their last meeting, the Commission on Information decided to publish a special issue for the Swiss abroad, which will appear in the autumn of 1979.

It will be a copy of the «Review», which should be kept carefully by everyone as a source of reference regarding legal, cultural and other problems, as well as a list of useful addresses.

Accordingly, the autumn issue of the «Review» will appear in September or beginning of October, depending on the continent. It will not contain any local pages. Will you please take note already now regarding announcements of your programmes of activities and other articles suitable for inclusion.

Summer Camp 1979

Soon the summer season will be back again and with it, too, the period of our traditional summer camp. We are happy that we are able to organize a camp again and thus offer to the young Swiss from abroad an opportunity of spending active holidays in Switzerland. We hope that many of you will take part, and we give you the date at which the camp will take place:

17th July to 4th August 1979

If you are a young Swiss resident abroad and between 15 and 25, and if you like rambles, comradeship and fun, please apply for further information and an application form to the Secretariat of the Swiss Abroad, Youth Service, Alpenstrasse 26, 3000 Berne 16, Switzerland.

Holidays in Switzerland again

for Swiss children living abroad

On behalf of the Foundation for Young Swiss Abroad and of Pro Juventute the Holiday Organization for Swiss Children Living Abroad will be organizing a holiday scheme again for next summer.

Eligible for participation: Children of Swiss nationality, children of foreign nationality whose mother is a Swiss national by descent.

Age of participants: 7–15 years.

Holiday possibilities: in Swiss families in our camps (from 10 years on) in children's homes (7–10 year olds)

Registration forms and further information: can be obtained from Swiss Embassies and Consulates, to whom completed registration forms have to be returned.

Latest application date: March 1979

Cost: No child will be prevented from participation in the holiday scheme for financial reasons. Depending on the income of the parents we can bear the costs partially or entirely.

«La Description de la Principauté de Neuchâtel et de Valangin» (Description of the Principality of N. and of V.)

The manuscript was written in 1692 and has now been re-published. Abraham Amiet, doctor and mathematician, describes the customs and problems of the population of the Canton during that epoch. The text is in Old French, a reproduction of the original work. The format is 16.5x24 cm and the price is SFr 9. — Publisher: Revue neuchâtoise, case postale 906, 2001 Neuchâtel, Switzerland.

«L'ambulance du Docteur Alexis Carrel 1914-1919»

In the years 1914 to 1918, the term «ambulance» meant all movable field hospitals which tried to alleviate at least the worst suffering during those tragic times. Dr. Carrel asked a group of nurses of the nursing school «La Source» in Lausanne to help him in looking after the injured. This school which owned a collection of hitherto unpublished documentation regarding the «ambulance», committed itself to the promotion of this expedient. It entrusted one of their collaborators, Georgette Mottier, with this task. The text is in French. There are 180 pages and 76 photographs. Distribution: Payot Lausanne or ASS.

«Encyclopédie du Canton de Fribourg»

Over 200 specialists have combined in putting their knowledge and results of research into the two volumes of this reference book. Thus they have created for the public a complete work of information on any sphere in the Canton of Fribourg from its origin to the present. Format 22x24 cm. Bound. French text. Volume I: 264 pages, 120 illustrations. Volume II: 290 pages, 150 illustrations. Both volumes mostly in colour. Price of both books together: SFr. 138.— plus Fr.8.50 for packing and postage. Orders to be sent to: Office du Livre SA, Post Box 1061, 1701 Fribourg, Switzerland, or to the ASS.
