SHOOT WITH THE SWISS RIFLE ASSOCIATION

A well attended mid-season meeting of the Swiss Rifle Association was held at Bisley on the 17th June. It was the occasion of the Annual Match against the Marylebone Rifle and Pistol Club and notable for the high standard of marksmanship achieved by the Association. In the team event the Swiss won by 20 points. The highest overall scores being made by Marcell Bucherer and Traugott Schaffner. In the individual competition, the "Marcel Stich", held to celebrate the President's birthday, Marylebone member P. Klein took first place with the Association Secretary B. Kett in second position. Third to sixth places also went to Association members.

A barbecue in aid of Association funds was generously run by Armin Loetscher of the St. Moritz Restaurant. An impressive array of cakes and pastries made and donated by the ladies was organised by Mrs. Gertrud Tresch, herself an active shooter. There was also a competition for prizes donated by members which was run by Mrs. Augustine

Kett. Altogether a successful day for the members and their families.
