MR. HAAB'S RESIGNATION.

MR. HAAB'S RESIGNATION. Mr. Haab, President of the Confederation, has informed his colleagues and political friends of his decision to hand in his resignation as Fed-eral Councillor at the end of the year 1929. This news will be received with regret, as Mr. Haab is one of our most distinguished and learned magis-trates. He was especially qualified to manage the Post Office department and the Swiss Federal Railways having newionaly heap at the head of Railways, having previously been at the bad of the latter. On the other hand, his sojourn as Swiss Minister in Berlin had given him a very clear insight into international politics.

ZURICH.

The painters' union under communistic guidance, have broken the wages agreement and declared a strike. N.Z.Z.

The union of the Žuřích tramway employees claims a revision of their wages, which were re-duced in 1923, the increase asked for being about Fs. 50-per month. Although Dr. Klöti, Presi-dent of Zurich's Town Council (Socialists in majority) personally addressed the meeting, he did not achieve any result. Indeed, he was ap-parently told that the "Trämler" are now harder worked than under the former conserva-tive authority.

BERN.

Dr. Rudolf Münger, a well-known painter and etcher, died in Berne, aged 67 years. St.G.T.

A 70 years old member of the Cantonal Gov-ernment, Mr. Zingg, has proposed in all serious-ness, that aeroplanes should be constructed to carry water with which to spray the country in periods of drought. The St. Galler Tagblatt re-marks, that age has evidently not dried up Mr. Zingg's youthful imagination.

LUZERN.

LUZERN. The Conservative Party has settled internal differences and proposes Councillor Albert Zust as candidate for the Federal State Councillor's seat held by the late Mr. Winiger. N.Z.Z.

SCHWYZ

The Commission appointed a year ago to study the terms of a proposed Income Tax Law has examined the general outlines laid down by the Cantonal Exchequer. It appears very prob-able, that the citizens will soon have the "pleas-ure" of dipping deeply into their pockets.

The Federal Railways need 9 square metres of land belonging to Lachen for an alteration to their track. Lachen originally acquired that land at a cost of Fs. 10. per square metre. The Federal Railways consider this price far too high and offer Fs. 4. As no settlement could be reached, this matter has had to go to the Federal Court of Justice; so that, for the grand total of Fs. 54, the Federal Court must travel to Lachen to inspect the ground. As the newspaper adds, this unfortunately is not a bad joke, but the bitter truth. N.Z.Z.

GLARUS.

It is suggested, that the Freuler Palace in Glarus be made the home of a cantonal museum. A beginning has already been made, as part of the building is used to house the collections belonging to the historical society. St.G.T.

ST. GALLEN.

ST. GALLEN. A queer case of kidnapping occurred at Rapperswil, where a motorist offered a ride to two 12 year old girls. As soon as the children were in the car, the man drove away at full speed. One of the girls, becoming alarmed, threw her-self out of the car during a momentary slacken-ing of speed and raised a hue and cry. The motorist, Karl Bosshard, garage proprietor in Chur and formerly dancing master in Zurich, was arrested at Rüthi the following day, with the girl in his company. The poor child was so dazed, that she has so far been unable to give a coherent report of what happened. Bosshard says, that he intended to exact a ransom, being in financial difficulties; but he is suspected of white slave traffic. N.Z.Z.

APPENZELL,

Some years ago, a dwelling next door to the school at Meistersrüti was completely burned out, because the fire brigade could not attempt out, because the new forlighte contract not attempt any salvage owing to the absence of water. A few days ago, a house on the other side of the school burned down. Again the fire brigade was helpless, as there was still no water. Yet, the Federal Council has just granted a State subsidy to provide Alp Siegel (Schwendi) with water mains mains St.G.T.

LEAGUE WIRELESS STATION.

LEACUE WIRELESS STATION. The station which is to serve the League is already in being, near-Nyon, on Lake Genera. It has been finished so far as the buildings are concerned, within the last few days, and has in operation a transmitter of European range and of the most modern technical character. Two short-wave transmitters, capable of transmit-ting to remote parts of the world, are to be added at the earliest possible moment. The station is the property of Radio-Suisse, in which the Swiss Government has a large financial in-terest, but it is to be handed over to the League for operation by an international personnel in times of crisis. It is believed that by the end of this year the League will obtain indepen-dence of communication without the heavy in-itial and running expenses of a station that would be entirely its own property. A INTERNATIONAL BUS SERVICE. A 'bus service has been inaugurated between Switzerland and South Common.

FIRE DESTROYS VILLAGE.

The village of Valais-en-Lourtier, in the Val de Bagnes, between Martigny and the frontier, was completely wiped out by fire. The work of the fire brigades was rendered very difficult by the lack of water.

A FAMOUS GUIDE.

Few people who visit the Mont Blanc district and are interested in monthaineering failed to know Anatole Couttet, who has been acci-dentally shot at Chamonix.

dentally shot at Chamonix. Conttet was one of a hardy race of guides, and was, perhaps the most famous guide in Switzerland. A man of fine physical appear-ance—as, one understands, were all his forbears, who were of the same profession—he was noted for his courage and for his extreme piety, some-times astonishing less religious English visitors by dropping down on his knees in prayer during an expodition an expedition. Like so many of his fellow-countrymen, he was a skilled wood carver.

FROM THE TICINO.

FROM THE TICINO. A recent issue of the "Adula" reprints, under the title of "Forgotten Ticinesi," the fol-lowing extract from the book "Excursions in the Canton Ticino," by Luigi Lavizzarri, pub-lished by Veladini & Co., of Lugano in 1863 — "At 'Alabardia,' a homestead of the little village of Piazzogna (Lake of Locarno), was born Francesco Meschini encineer and architect who

"At 'Alabardia,' a homestead of the ntitle village of Piazzogna (Lake of Locarno), was born Francesco Meschini, engineer and architect, who studied art in Paris and Milan. Meschini was well liked by Piernarini and Albertolli,—he built the hospital of Mantova and a number of forts around that city,—received the gold medal of the Academy of Arts of Harma for specially commendable work,—built the bridge of Ascona on the Maggia and the fine road which crosses the St. Gotthard. By order of the Government of Basle he planned the road which, by way of the Hauenstein, leads to Olten and to Lucerne, and built also the new Devil's Bridge, on the Heuess, above Goeschenen. At the time of the Helvetic Republic, Francesco Meschini was ak lotted very important tasks by the Central Gov-ernment which he carried out, along with other works, in a most satisfactory way. "It should be mentioned that Napoleon I.. commissioned young engineer Meschini to build commissioned young engineer Meschini to build a floating bridge over the Po, in Italy, for the passage of the French armies, and he acquitted himself so well that he was highly praised by the Emperor.

The following is a translation of the epitaph to him, in the tomb of the Meschini family in the cemetery of San Nazzaro (Lake of Locarno):

To Francesco Meschini, 1762-1840, who applied his architectural genius both in his own country and abroad and who, as first magistrate (Landamman), guided for many years the destinies of the Repub-lic of the Ticino with rare political fore-sight, and built with fine technical sense the magnificent road of the St. Gotthard, fount of prosperity for the Canton. The vicissitudes of voluble fortune he bore with noble resignation. This token of affection was laid by his sorrowing relatives.

Tears and peace be upon his ashes and ay his soul enjoy eternally the fullness may his of God.

It may be mentioned that the family Meschini, well known to the Swiss colony in London, are the only surviving relatives bearing his name, and Francesco Meshini would be great-grand-uncle of our compatriot Mr. Arturo Meschini.
