RUDOLF SANGER †

We announce with regret the death of Mr. Rudolf Sanger, formerly Chef at the Royal Station Hotel, Newcastle-on-Tyne, which occurred on December 28th, 1945, at the Royal General Hospital in York, at the age of 57.

The late Mr. Sanger arrived in this country some 35 years ago and was employed as Chef with the L.N.E.R. at their Hotels in York and Newcastle-on-Tyne alternatively for the last 30 years. He was a likeable personality, and whoever came in contact with him was struck by his generosity and his patriotism.

The deceased was one of the earliest subscribers to the SWISS OBSERVER; he was well informed about the happenings in our country, and in him the Swiss Colony loses a man, whose passing away many friends will mourn.

DORIS LILY MOEHR †

We deeply regret to announce the death, at the age of 14, of Doris Lily Moehr, only child of Mr. and Mrs. P. Moehr, of 27, St. Margarets Road, Edgware, Middlesex.

Doris was killed on January 12th, 1946, following a road accident.

All those who knew this bright and lively girl will keep her in treasured memory, and we tender to her parents our heartfelt sympathy in their tragic bereavement.

ST. GEORGE'S SCHOOL in SWITZERLAND

(Ecole St. Georges, S.A.)
CLARENS — MONTREUX.

The School, which is under an English Principal, assisted by an Anglo-Swiss Staff, provides a general education, with special attention to English and French, for an international group of pupils.

The programme includes preparation for the Cambridge School Certificate; for the Higher and Lower Certificates of Proficiency in English; and for English and continental Universities.

During the war the school has remained open, and it numbers at present some 60 girls, half of whom are Swiss. The English Branch, which was opened at Shrewsbury during the war, is closing in April.

As soon as Exchange Control Regulations permit, pupils from England will be received again.

Information may be had from:—
