BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

Two of our readers will be celebrating their 80th birthdays on 22nd April, Mrs. A. Stauffer and Mr. E. Zwicky.

Mrs. Elsie Stauffer, of 48a Putney Hill, SW15, is still a well-known figure in the Swiss community. For well over thirty years of her husband's editorship of the Swiss Observer, and afterwards, she accompanied him to the many events which he had to attend as Editor.

She gave him wonderful support, and wherever she attends any function in the Colony today, she is received with great pleasure and warm affection. It will come as a surprise to most of us that she should have reached the age of 80, and her many friends wish her many more years of good health and contentment.

Mr. E. Zwicky, of 9 Chesterfield Lodge, Church Hill, Winchmore Hill, N21, has expressed a wish that no fuss be made. So we shall confine ourselves to wishing him an enjoyable day and many happy returns.

On 26th April, Mr. Fernand Delaloye, of 74 Cawdor Crescent, W7, will reach the rank of the octogenarians. He hails from Ardon in the Valais and came to this country in 1905 after a short stay in Monte Carlo. He began his career as a page boy at the Trocadero's florist shop, and then started work in the kitchens, working his way up right to the top, first at the Lyons' Coventry Street Corner House, the Regent Palace Hotel and as Manager of the "Troc" and the Throgmorton Restaurant in the City.

In the Swiss Observer issue of 20th December 1975, an article appeared on 100 years of service with J. Lyons and Co; Fernand Delaloye had 52 years' service to his credit, his sons Marcel 27 and Denis 20. The photo also showed his grandson, Peter, who had at that time completed his first year.

He retired some years ago, still taking an active interest in the Swiss Club of which he had been President. He was also a member and Hon. member of the Union Helvetia, and a Trustee of the Société de Secours Mutuels.

His many friends and former colleagues wish him many more years of happy retirement.

The following readers will celebrate birthdays in the near future: Mrs. K. Michel has her birthday on 1st April. Mr. P. Lerch will be 77 on 2nd April, the same day as Mr. Th. Haller will be 62.
