SWISS WELFARE OFFICE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Finance

After the worrying year of 1976 which ended with a deficit of £1,448.48, 1977 started with the good news that a federal subsidy of Sw.Fr.10,000 (= £2,293.58) had been granted to us. We knew that we could carry on our work but that there was no room for complacency. For this reason it was decided to try to raise money by means of an appeal, here as well as in Switzerland. We wish to thank all individuals and firms who so generously made donations or signed covenants. The total amount received represents one quarter of last year's income and helped to avert another loss. We sincerely hope this support will be forthcoming in 1978 and future years, as it is vital to our continued existence.

Another important reason for the more favourable picture of this year's accounts is the fact that for two months the Welfare Office had the free services of Mrs. Gunn who volunteered to work during the interim period between Mrs. McCarthy's departure and Mrs. Lyster's start. This valuable help is much appreciated.

Our generous landlords, the Swiss Benevolent Society, increased their contribution from £300 to £500 as well as putting an office at our disposal rent free.

Staff

Mrs. U. McCarthy, our social worker, had to leave us in August owing to her husband's posting abroad. Her time at the Welfare Office has been of great value to the young people who came in contact with her and we are grateful for her enthusiasm and wisdom. Her place was taken by Mrs. M. Lyster, a qualified social worker, who is married to an Englishman and lives in London. She joined the Committee in 1972 and became its Hon. Secretary in 1973. She has also acted as holiday relief for both the Welfare Office and the Swiss Benevolent Society for some years having thus gained valuable experience of the problems and difficulties young people encounter in this country.

Mrs. M. Lee, the secretary whom we share with the Swiss Benevolent Society, has been married this year and fortunately is still working for us. We offer her our best wishes for a happy future. A new member of our team is Mrs. E. Gunn, who is now working as holiday relief in place of Mrs. Lyster. Mrs. E. Gunn is Swiss, married to an Englishman.

Mrs. M. Lyster resigned as Hon. Secretary due to her new commitment as Social Worker. She was succeeded by Mrs. M. Käufeler, a former Hon. Treasurer and already a member of the committee.

Statistics can only give the bare bones of the work done. It must never be forgotten that each "case" is a real person with a real problem of a varying degree of complexity and that none is the same as another. Some problems are caused by the trends of modern society and some by the nature of the girls or boys themselves. Some are dealt with in a few minutes by the giving of an address for instance, and some can take weeks to resolve.

Very little of this work could be satisfactorily achieved without the help and support, both financial and personal, of a wide variety of people. We are sincerely grateful to Mrs. A.-R. Sharp of the Swiss Benevolent Society who was always ready to help. We very much appreciate the excellent co-operation between her and our Social Worker.

We should also like to thank Miss Alder, the Warden of the Swiss Hostel, who has always been prepared to take in a troubled girl at short notice.

Most valuable help was granted to the Committee by H.E. the Swiss Ambassador in our efforts to obtain a higher subsidy, and the office has enjoyed the continued support of the staff of the Embassy, for which we are sincerely grateful.

The Ministers of the Swiss Church in London and the Swiss Catholic Mission as well as their helpers have assisted us and continued the good co-operation.

We also wish to express our sincere thanks to Freundinnen Junger Mädchen, Pro Filia, Swiss Benevolent Society, Evang. Verband Frauenhilfe and the Federation of the Swiss Churches for their financial assistance, the employment agencies here and in Switzerland, British Airways, Swissair and various other organisations and individuals for their help.

With their continued support and that of our many friends both here and in Switzerland we look forward to another year of service to our young compatriots.
