The Railways of Northern Germany
 ONE HOUR £19.95

West Germany has a wide variety of fascinating trains and railways. From the peninsula of Sylt, served by car carrying trains to the industrial heartland of the Rhine and the Ruhr this programme surveys the North German scene. Visits are made to the island lines of Wangerooge and Spiekeroog. International connections with East Germany, Denmark and Holland are shown and a number of preserved railways visited. There is enough live steam to whet the appetite.

European Video Express Volume 7
 ONE HOUR £14.95

(or on subscription - four issues for £50)

Volume 7 of our best selling magazine programme concentrates on the Dutch 150 celebrations including steam engine parades, special trains and the exhibition. Also included is a profile of DB's class 181s, visits to Hannover and Köln and a study of traffic on the famous southern ramp of the Gotthard between the tunnel and the border town of Chiasso.

A NEW VIDEO FROM
JOHN COCKING
Iberian Rail Trail
 by train through
Spain and Portugal

This is the first in a series of 'Rail-Trails' which the dedicated traveller can follow.

The journey begins and ends in Santander which is convenient for the ferry from Plymouth. Our 5,000 kilometre journey begins on the metre gauge line along the Costa Cantabrico to Oviedo. The RENFE route to Leon is as spectacular as any Alpine pass and the trains are colourful.

The Bay of Biscay is approached through Ponferrada, Monforte, Orense and Tui before heading south to Portugal. The broad and narrow gauge lines along the coast are examined in detail. In Oporto trains soar across the Douro on Eiffel's delicate bridge as the port carrying boats bob on the waters below.

We return to Spain via Guarda and Salamanca to Madrid where Talgos fight for line space amongst lesser expresses and freights. The Mediterranean beckons and we take the line along sun kissed beaches and through waving palms from Valencia to Barcelona. We return to Santander across the barren but colourful interior of Zaragoza via Bilbao.

This is a mouth watering travel experience never before recorded commercially on video. Join us on the IBERIAN RAIL-TRAIL.

Rhätische Bahn

1989

RHÄTISCHE BAHN 1989

During 1989 the wonderful Swiss metre gauge line, the RhB, celebrated its 100th birthday with a series of celebrations. Our cameras were there to record the major events including the visit of the ICE and TEE to Chur, the Prätigauer festival and the celebration on the Bernina Line.

The RhB's first locomotive, steam engine Number 1, returned to the railway and she features heavily in this one hour documentary. There are also ancient box-cabs and crocodiles in abundance. The video was shot over virtually the whole RhB network including the mountainous Albula and Bernina lines. The programme has full commentary.
