"Down" passenger train approaching Muot.

The Davos-Filisur Pendelzugs, were formed as follows on 26 August:

Set 1: BDt1721, AB1515, AB1510, B2337,
Ge4/4<sup>1</sup> 607 Surselva.

Set 2: BDt1731, B2340, AB1517, B2339,

In both cases the locomotive propelled the train from Davos. On the same day the 08:55 arrival from Davos was a non-pendelzug set worked by Ge4/4<sup>11</sup> 624 Celerina/Schlarigna.

Although we drove from Bregenz to Chur along the N13 I didn't see a single SBB train. Most unusual!

Society Notes

The attention of members is drawn to the following points:

If a member takes a layout to an exhibition not organised by the Society (and this in effect means anything but the AGM), then he should ensure that the organisers provide insurance cover for his layout and stock both at the exhibition and during transit to and from the venue. This is normal practice, and involves the layout owner providing a schedule of models and their replacement value, if you are not asked to perform this check, and if you are not assured in writing of insurance cover, decline the invitation.

We would draw all Member's attention to the final paragraph of Rule 3, which states that members may not use the name of the Society for personal gain. This includes obtaining footplate rides or access to Railway Works etc. Swiss Railways often welcome interested enthusiasts, but it is necessary for individuals to make their own approach through the company's headquarters if they wish to go beyond the very relaxed public boundaries. In many cases station and train staff will offer access to restricted places to an interested passenger on an informal basis. Having been granted such privileges, it is of course, quite in order to mention afterwards that you are a member, but your membership card is not to be regarded as a pass. The Committee give notice that if any member is known to have misused his membership in this fashion, it may exercise its discretion to terminate membership of the individual concerned.

The Constitution was amended at the AGM to include two additional officers. A reprint will be made in due course, in the meantime would members add to Clause 4, line 3, after "Editor" "Publicity and Exhibitions Officer, Sales Officer".

We would apologise for the very late delivery of Membership Cards to many Members. This was entirely due to the Post Office which succeeded in mislaying a complete batch. The only good thing was that they didn't lose them but if any Member has not yet received his card would he write to the NEW Membership Secretary, B.J.Hemming, 3 Little Heath Road, Chobham, Woking, Surrey GU24 8RP.
