DIE POST

A correspondent recently asked whether there any videos are available showing Postbuses. I am pleased to say that I have located some which are available from the PTT themselves via their website - <www.post.ch>, click on the English translation and go to shop.

There are currently three on sale and details follow. If anyone orders them please let us know what they are like. They cost SFr43 each plus postage. Because of the way the website is set up I was unable to determine whether payment can be made with credit cards or whether you are sent an invoice. In the email that you send there is a space for ones country. I would therefore presume this means that the PTT will send to the UK or other countries. I will endeavour to discover chapter and verse on this.

"AARBERG-BERNE" VIDEO (1991)

A postbus drive through the lovely scenery between Aarberg and Berne, with a unique panoramic views of the Jura and the Alps. This trip on Switzerland's oldest postbus route is also illustrated with pictures from our archives. Duration: 48 mins. German

"KLAUSENPASS" VIDEO (1997)

Accompany a postbus driver on his trip through the magnificent mountain landscapes of Central Switzerland. Duration: 82 mins. German

"POSTAUTOCORSO '91" VIDEO

Parade of Switzerland's most attractive postbuses from 1921-1990, supplemented by excerpts from old archive films. Duration: 24 mins. German

HOTEL SONNENHEIM - EMAIL ADDRESS

Geoffrey Kichenside writes to say that since the publication of the March issue with advertisement for the Hotel Sonnenheim, Bergün, the hotel's email address has changed to:
hotel@sonnenheim.ch

This will explain some comments from members that they had been unable to contact the hotel this year.
