THE SOB CELEBRATES 125 YEARS OF THE EINSIEDELN-WÄDENSWIL ROUTE

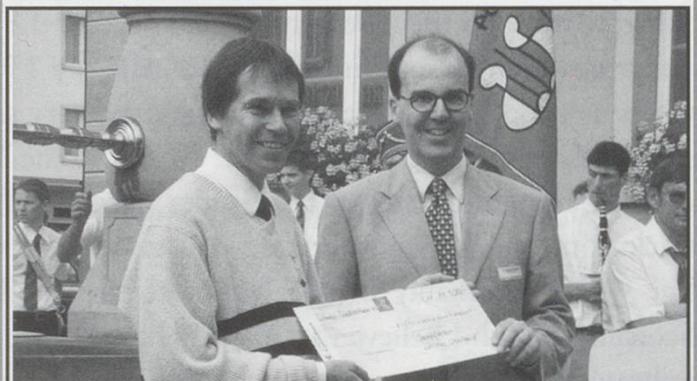

The SOB's Wädenswil-Einsiedeln line recently celebrated its 125th birthday. Being Switzerland this was marked on the 31st August 2002 with a party at Einsiedeln station. In amongst the festivities involving beer and sausages were the usual railway activities.

The bls brought along a NINA, DVZO brought up a steam locomotive, the Amor triebwagen ran a shuttle between Einsiedeln and Blatten, and the Tesa locomotive and other Voralpen coaches were there. Drive your own train, a garden railway. A great day out. Dr Guido Schoch, head of the SOB, also presented DVZO with a cheque, as can be seen from the pictures.

A PDF brochure is still available from the SOB's website: click on News/FAQ and go to the archive. The address is: www.suedostbahn.ch

I do wish that Swiss transport companies would let us know in good time what is happening on their systems. I was in Switzerland that day and didn't know anything about it. I would have loved to have gone and joined in the celebrations!
