LE WEEKEND

THE AUTUMN SOCIAL EVENT 15/16TH OCTOBER 2004

The Function Room of the WYNDHAM ARMS
Kingsbury Episcopi, MARTOCK, Somerset TA12 6AT

The programme is set out below. If you need any further information, or if I can be of assistance then please let me, Roger Ellis, know. You can refer to any edition of Swiss Express under the Diary Page for my address and telephone number.

FRIDAY 15th OCTOBER 20.00

An illustrated slide show and talk by Tony Bagwell on Switzerland and its Railways. Tony is a member of the Society, but undertakes these talks on behalf of CLIC. I hope that those present will be happy to make a donation to this worthwhile cause, as admission will be free.

SATURDAY 16TH OCTOBER 11.00-17.00

There will be two layouts, Lilikon and A Taste of Switzerland. Trade stands from WINCO, MITV and Gerald Savine. The Swiss Railways Society Sales Stand will also be present. There will also be a photo competition organised by the Editor of Swiss Express. The idea of the day is for members and visitors to socialise in a convivial atmosphere. Tea, coffee and biscuits will be available. Lunch will also be available at the pub on an individual basis.

SATURDAY EVENING MEAL

To round the day off Jeremy, the owner of the Wyndham Arms, is going to provide us with a Swiss meal costing less than £10.00 per head. If you think you might fancy this then let me know. Currently 18 have said yes. But the more the merrier!

The B & Bs all charge in the range of £40/55 per night for two people. The two Hotels would however be more expensive. There are two Travelodge motels on the A303, and this chain is always having special offers.

If you are thinking of a weekend, then the Fleet Air Arm Museum and the Haynes Motor Museum are both nearby. I have checked, and nearly all the National Trust houses and gardens in the area such as Montacute are open until the end of October.
