GALLERY - Ae6/6s

Ae6/6 No.11471 (formerly Pratteln) in charge of a freight train at Sargans. Note that the shield and nameplates have already been removed.

Having just returned from an evening bash the sight of an Ae6/6 waiting patiently on a mail train was worth waiting for. 11465 awaits the post on platform 8 in Luzern in the summer of 2004. Proper Swiss power on the postal! Royal Mail take note!

An unidentified Ae6/6 hurtles through Neuchâtel in the early evening of 10.05.05 on a freight with mostly tank wagons following.

The members present on the day sit prepared. Armed to the teeth with questions, but at the same time hoping it will all be over soon so that we can get back to the serious business of playing trains, socialising, and handing over wads of cash or bits of plastic.

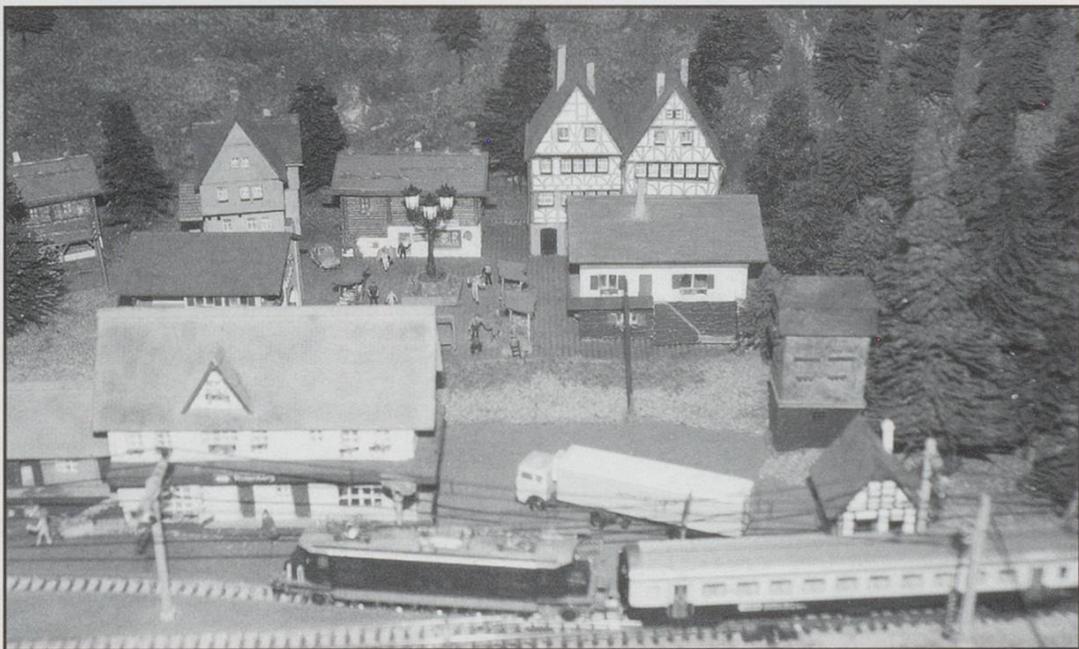

The Contikits stand; look what you all missed if you weren't there.

The bring and buy stand, superbly organised by the London Branch.

One of the biggest layouts at the AGM was the East Surrey N Gauge group's Dreibrücken and Rotberg layout. Two views show what you missed; never mind there's always next year!
